

The Weather
Generally fair, warm humid weather tonight and Tuesday but widely scattered afternoon or evening thunder showers.

Washington C. H. Record-Herald

Vol. 69—No. 116

Washington C. H., Ohio, Monday, June 20, 1949

10 Pages

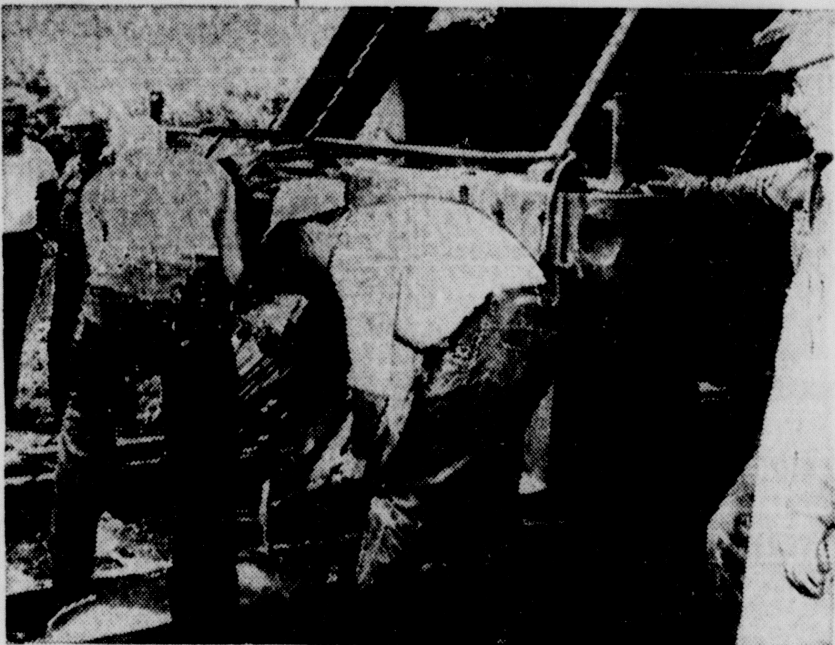

Five Cents

Associated Press

Full Associated Press leased wire service for state, national and world news. The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to use all local news in this newspaper.
Telephone: Business office — 22121.
News office — 9701.

NEW FEDERAL DEPARTMENT IS PROPOSED

Derailed Engine Blocks Traffic Here

It might not happen again in a hundred years, but when the engine of an extra B&O eastbound freight split a switch on the curve just west of the freight office on South Main Street about 9:15 A. M. Saturday the yard engine and other engines could not reach the stranded train.

The long train extended up across Court and Market Streets, the Newark Division of the B&O and Milliken Avenue at Millwood, completely blocking any assistance from locomotives in the yards.

Plans were made to have another eastbound train, due later in the day, pull the stranded freight train northward, relieving the blocked crossings and Newark Division of the B&O.

However, the train crew, augmented by yardmen and maintenance crews started working to reraill the big engine, and kept at the job until around 1 P. M., about four hours after the mishap, the pony trucks of the engine had been rerailed and the train proceeded on its own power.

In the meantime traffic was more or less in a snarl, and hundreds of drivers found it necessary to detour over Circle Avenue as the only way of getting around the stranded freight.

Police and trainmen assisted in routing traffic, until the engine could be rerailed.

Meanwhile, westbound traffic on the road was interfered with, and traffic on the Newark Division was delayed until the rerailling was completed and the freight continued eastward.

Miners Back on Job But Only For Week

PITTSBURGH, June 20—(AP)—John L. Lewis' nearly half-million United Mine Workers trooped back to the pits today as the UMW's contract negotiations neared the showdown stage.

Just as UMW district leaders predicted, the week-long "stabilization" walkout ordered by Lewis ended on schedule. The few mines operating midnight shifts reported full-scale production underway.

The 480,000 UMW members can use the money they earn this week. On Saturday they quit work again—this time for their 10-day paid vacation. But the loss of last week's wages offset to a considerable degree the $100 each of them will receive for their vacation.

The miners, too, aren't sure just when they'll return to work after the end of their vacations. That's because the current UMW contracts run out June 30.

If Lewis and the operators can't come to terms it's a foregone conclusion there will be a strike. The bushy-browed leader long has adhered to a "no contract, no work policy."

Estranged Husband Is Held for Killing

CELINA, June 20—(AP)—Mrs. Thomas Patrick Reedy, 19, was shot to death early today in a Celina home and police took into custody her estranged husband, Coroner George I. McIlroy reported.

Dr. McIlroy said the couple separated about a week ago.

Reedy went to the home and fired a single shot from a pistol, the coroner reported. He said the bullet struck Mrs. Reedy in the abdomen.

She died in Gibbons Hospital here about 30 minutes later.

Reedy surrendered to investigating officers, the coroner said. The woman was the mother of a 10-month-old daughter.

Reedy borrowed the pistol, an antique, from Al Slusser, a farmer at whose home Mrs. Reedy had been residing temporarily.

Sheriff Dwight Raudenbush said that after the shooting Reedy went to Slusser's house and said:

"I have just shot my wife. Here is your gun back. Will you call the sheriff?"

Meanderings

By Wash Fayette

If you were driving along one of the fine highways in Fayette County, and suddenly a 14-foot elephant, with huge, unwieldy tusks walked into view, I know you would be really startled, and probably think that you were really seeing things.

However, thousands of years ago such huge elephants made their home in Fayette County, and were feared by other beasts generally.

One of the kind was the mastodon and the other was the mammoth, and the latter frequently reached nearly 14 feet in height. I have seen the skeleton of the mammoth, as well as mastodon, in the American Museum of Natural History, New York City.

The mammoth and mastodon both inhabited Fayette County, because I have seen the teeth of the two which were found in Fayette County along with fragments of bones of the huge fellows.

The mammoth had long, curved tusks which were turned back so far they were not too good for offensive and defensive purposes. His teeth were in narrow ridges, which were cemented together, and some of the monsters were covered with long, coarse hair.

The mammoth also roamed the county, and both of the animals fed on vegetation, etc.

The tusks of the mastodon were straighter than those of the mammoth, and less sharply curved. They were frequently 10 feet in length. The molars of the mastodon were separated, and quite different from those of the mammoth.

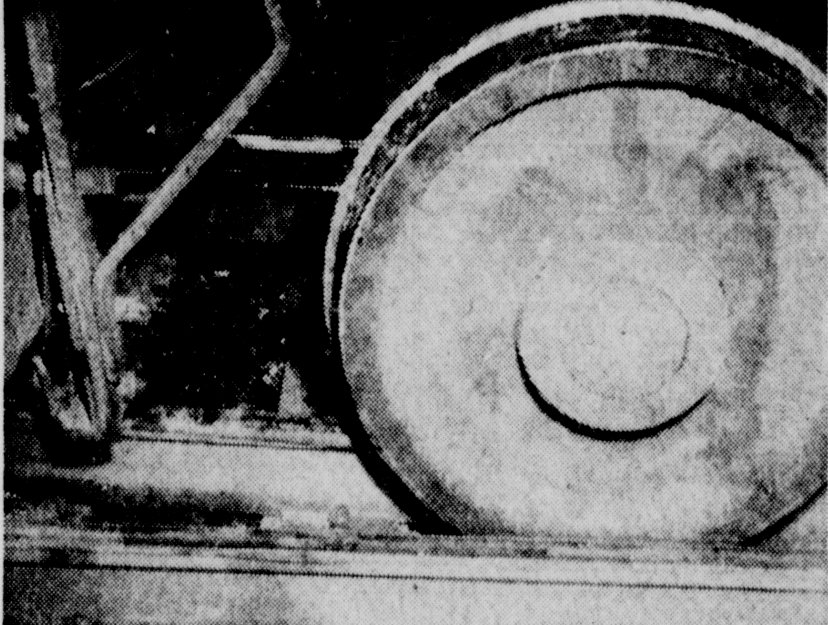

Skeletal remains of the mastodon have been found in this vicinity, but the mammoth apparently vanished a long time before the mastodon was forced out.

I have a 6½ pound mastodon tooth found in Paint Creek near the Oakland Avenue bridge a number of years ago, and no doubt part of the skeleton of the mastodon is in that area.

Part of a mammoth tooth was found near Rock Mills a number of years ago when John Duncan was the chief citizen of the mills.

Heavy Enrollment Seen

KENT, June 20—(AP)—Heavy enrollment in education classes may push Kent State University's summer enrollment to a new high, officials said today.

A WHEEL OF THE "pony trucks" are shown (top photo) down between the rails after splitting the switch in an unusual B. & O. accident that blocked traffic on three streets here most of Saturday morning after 9:15 A. M.

A crew works at getting the big engine back on the tracks (lower photo) by using a re-railing device and jacks. The railer is barely discernible along the rail just ahead of the derailed wheel.

Fayette Countians Swelter

9 Dead, Dozen Missing In Disastrous Floods

Sunday, with a peak temperature of 92 degrees, and a great deal of humidity, was the most uncomfortable day of the season here to-date.

The minimum for the day was 66 degrees and the minimum Sunday night was 65 degrees.

The intense heat and humidity were keenly felt by citizens generally during Sunday.

Monday started with 78 degrees at 8 A. M. with indications the temperature again would reach or pass the 90 mark during the day.

The hot weather is ideal "corn" weather, and as a result corn (as well as weeds) show remarkable growth.

First Prostration Here

First heat exhaustion reported here occurred shortly before 1 P. M. when Virginia Trimmer, 18, a waitress, collapsed at the Sunnyside Inn on Chilli-cothe Rd.

She was taken by the Gerstner ambulance to Dr. N. M. Reiff's office but was conscious on arrival.

Workers at the inn said she had an unusually heavy day, waiting on several customers.

Floods Receding

The flooded Potomac and Shenandoah Rivers receded today and yielded up the bodies of nine persons drowned in the rain-swept area over the weekend.

A dozen persons were reported missing after flash floods early Saturday sent the two rivers plunging over their banks. Petersburg, W. Va., was almost isolated for about 36 hours, but communications were restored yesterday. The angry waters wrecked 60 homes and approximately 285 other buildings there.

Damage from the flood may run into the millions of dollars, one official said. Meantime, health authorities began a program of in-

Hungry Thieves Caught; Return for Breakfast

CANTON, June 20—(AP)—Sheriff's deputies today jailed three young men accused of stealing cigarettes and about $20 in cash from a drive-in restaurant.

They caught them yesterday, they said, because the young men got hungry after leaving the restaurant and returned to fix themselves breakfast.

Unemployment Increasing, but No Slump Seen

Organized Labor Asserts Depression Almost Impossible

WASHINGTON, June 20—(AP)—Two national surveys agree the nation soon may have 5,000,000 or more jobless, but they disagree on what happens next.

The public affairs institute warned, "nothing in sight indicates a halt in unemployment trends."

The American Federation of Labor declared, "a serious business recession is almost impossible."

Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), also in a weekend statement, said the situation is confused and Congress will study it.

The public affairs institute predicted 8,000,000 workers will be out of jobs a year from now unless the federal government steps in to give business a boost.

Unemployment may hit 6,000,000 by the end of this year, the institute added.

The institute recommended tax cuts for the low and middle income brackets, emergency public works in hard-hit areas, revival of the Civilian Conservation Corps and other federal actions to reassure and stimulate business.

"Unemployment has passed the 'spot' stage," the institute said. "It is not a local, but a national, problem."

The AFL looked over the economic outlook in its magazine, "Labor's Monthly Survey," and found the prospect good. It acknowledged there are some dangers, however, and said policies of unions, management and the government right now are "all important."

It said wages should keep moving upward to increase consumer buying, but suggested increases be based on increases in productivity. It urged unions to cooperate with management in cutting out waste and bringing down expenses.

The AFL warned this is not time for government, management, or unions to start any tinkering that might bring on inflation again.

Movie Stars Hold Hospital Auction

HOLLYWOOD, June 20—(AP)—The St. Anne Maternity Hospital for unmarried mothers is $41,012.50 richer today, all because of an auction sponsored by actress Loretta Young.

Jewels, gowns, antiques, furs, and even cocker spaniels donated by motion picture actors, actresses and executives were donated for the auction held four days last week.

Even the gavel of volunteer auctioneer Roy J. Goldenberg and Jack Greson went under the hammer. There was one instance of a donor buying back his own donation.

Ex-GIs Are To Get Dividend On Government Life Insurance

WASHINGTON, June 20—(AP)—Veterans Administrator Carl R. Gray, Jr., today authorized payment next year of a special $2,800,000,000 dividend on national service life insurance policies.

Gray said he hopes veterans will begin receiving checks "some time in January, 1950," with payment substantially completed in the first half of that year.

About 16,000,000 veterans of World War II will receive the dividends.

This would average about $175 for each ex-serviceman, but the agency said individual calculations have not been completed.

In general, every veteran who took out national service insurance and kept it in force at least three months will be eligible.

Where policy-holders have died, the beneficiaries will receive the funds, Gray said.

Application blanks for the dividends are being prepared and may be available in August in post-offices, veterans' service organizations, and VA offices.

Meantime the administrator asked veterans not to write now about their dividends because letters "will only cause the payment to be delayed."

Catholic-Communist Tension Near Break in Czechoslovakia

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, June 20—(AP)—The Communist government's security police apparently tightened their guard on Arch-

Archbishop Josef Beran

bishop Josef Beran's palace today while Catholics weighed the meaning of organized Communist heckling of the prelate at Sunday's cathedral services. The heckling drove him from his cathedral and prevented him from completing his sermon.

Attempts of many persons to talk to the archbishop today were foiled by security police supervising the palace reception desk and telephone switchboard.

Communist interruptions of the archbishop's Corpus Christi Day sermon in St. Vitus Cathedral yesterday brought the long battle between church and state to its highest tension. The archbishop, defiantly resisting Communist efforts to control the church and break the spiritual rule of the Vatican over Czechoslovakia's 9,000,000 Catholics, had to leave the pulpit and return to his palace, already under the watchful eye of the security police.

The whistling jeering broke out from demonstrators bunched near the altar as the archbishop began a denunciation of the government's moves against the church.

Some Prague priests told their congregations the ancient cathedral might have to be reconsecrated because the disorders had profaned Holy ground. However, a cathedral official said this would not be necessary. The heckling, he

(Please turn to Page Two)

Seven Ohio Colleges Balk at Book Check

CLEVELAND, June 20—(AP)—Of the 12 Ohio colleges asked, only five have taken steps to supply the list of schoolbooks requested in the Red propaganda hunt of the House Un-American activities committee.

One university, Ohio Northern, bluntly said it did not intend to hand over the list of books.

A survey by the Cleveland Plain Dealer showed these schools planned to meet the request of government investigators:

The University of Cincinnati, Ohio State University at Athens, Bowling Green State University, the University of Toledo and Oberlin College.

Ohio State, University of Dayton, Antioch College, Wilberforce University, Wooster College, Fenn College and Ohio Northern are holding up, for the time being at least.

The House committee, seeking to determine if Communist propaganda has gotten into schoolbooks, picked at random some 71 colleges and universities. Twelve are in Ohio. They were asked to supply a list of textbooks and supplementary reading material used in various fields of study.

Dr. F. Bringle McIntosh, president of Ohio Northern, said the Three Masked Robbers Hold Up Bowling Alley

CLEVELAND, June 20—(AP)—Three masked thugs held up the Recreation Cafe and Bowling Alley on Cleveland's east side today and escaped with $2,148 in cash and $800 in checks.

Before they left, they tied up the porter, John Benedictus, 21, and covered him with newspapers to conceal him from passersby.

investigation was "not American in principle."

Ohio State expressed willingness to cooperate, but called the information asked a "major project." It has asked for more specific details of what the committee wants.

Dayton, Wilberforce, Antioch and Wooster are holding up action pending a possible legal ruling on whether they must comply.

COMMITTEE EASES UP

WASHINGTON, June 20—(AP)—The House Un-American activities committee proceeded with softer tread today on its hunt for Communist propaganda in school books.

An assurance went out to education officials.

(Please turn to Page Two)

Workers Quit Over 'Voodoo'

CLEVELAND, June 20—(AP)—Five former employees of a Twinsburg engraver claimed they had to leave his plant because he practiced "voodooism, dynamic thought and communication with spirits of the dead."

They were answering a suit filed by the Twinsburg man, Oscar A. Shupe, owner of the O. Shupe Engraving Co. He asked $25,000 claiming that after he taught them the engraving business, they left his plant and formed a competing business in Bedford. He asked the court to enjoin them from using his trade secrets and taking his customers.

In their answer in common pleas court, the five said "the continually tried to cure the ills of his employees by spirits, claiming doctors could do no good."

They also asserted they had to leave because of the mental strain of working for him.

Summer Shutdowns Face Ohio Workers

COLUMBUS, June 20—(AP)—Some 900 Ohio plants will shut down, briefly, for mass vacations and inventories during July and August, the state employment service predicts.

It is estimated that 368,000 workers would be affected by the action.

The prediction was made in conjunction with an announcement that 76,368 newly unemployed Ohioans applied for unemployment compensation in May.

The Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reports the number of claim filers was the highest since May, 1946.

The weekly average of persons with claims on file, the BUC reported, rose to 129,162 in May, an increase of more than 6,000 from the April level.

The bureau reported more than $8,500,000 was paid by the state in unemployment benefits during May. That was the highest figure since June, 1946.

7-Ply Program Submitted for Reorganization

Welfare Department Of Cabinet Status Proposed by Truman

WASHINGTON, June 20—(AP)—President Truman today asked Congress to create a tenth cabinet-rank department—a department of welfare—and to put the commerce department in charge of public roads.

The plans—seven all told—were sent to Capitol Hill within a half hour after Mr. Truman signed the long-debated reorganization bill giving him broad powers to merge and streamline government agencies subject to congressional veto.

The public roads administration now is in the federal work agency. Welfare and social security matters are handled by the federal security agency.

All the plans, if permitted to take effect, will carry out reform and economy proposals of the commission on government organization headed by former President Herbert Hoover.

The other five would (A) give the bureau of employment security (jobless pay and job placement) to the labor department, (B) reorganize the postoffice department, (D) streamline the civil service commission, and (E) strengthen the authority of the chairman of the maritime commission.

Follow Recommendations

All seven plans were described by the White House as conforming "quite closely" to the Hoover commission recommendations filed with Congress this spring after two years of research.

Under the new law, the plans will take effect in 60 days unless either house of Congress vetoes them within that time by a majority vote of the full membership—49 "no" votes in the Senate or 218 in the House. Each plan is to be considered separately.

Congressional leaders, after talking with the president today, indicated Congress still will be in session when the 60 days are up on August 19. They also predicted two more reorganization plans will be sent up by the president shortly.

Welfare Department

The proposal to create a welfare department provides that it take over the duties now administered by the Federal Security Administrator Oscar Ewing. Ewing, if he then holds the job would become

(Please turn to Page Two)

Lonely Hearts Fan Burns Down Cabin To Conceal Murder

LAKEPORT, Calif., June 20—(AP)—A lonely hearts club fan is in jail today accused of murdering his bride and her two-year-old daughter and burning their cabin to hide the crime.

The accused man, Stephen Brunsan, 34, a mechanic, had a dossier of 31 women with whom he had corresponded, District Attorney Levett K. Freser said.

Last on the list was Mrs. Virginia James Wiltgen Brunsan, 26, former wife of a Chicago policeman, who died in the blaze last week. She and Policeman Charles Wiltgen married her in Hutchinson, Kas., last March 31.

The mechanic was arrested Saturday after he had attended a double funeral for his wife and her daughter, Agnes.

Scioto River Test Near Chillicothe

CHILLICOTHE, June 20—(AP)—Results of tests of Scioto river water, taken to find out what killed some 400 fish here over the weekend, were expected to be announced today.

Water samples were taken Saturday and again yesterday for analysis by the state division of conservation.

Thomas G. Gallagher, chief of the division's pollution section, had been narrowed to a one-mile said the area of the fish poisoning sector upstream from the route 23 bridge.

Gallagher said a preliminary analysis of the river water showed it to be in a normal alkaline condition. High water and a swift moving current hampered the investigation, he said.

Brain Operation Is Performed on Jimmy Hoffman

Blood Clot Forms After Hit in Head By Golf Ball Here

Jimmy Hoffman, who was hit in the head last Thursday afternoon by a golf ball at the Country Club, today is "doing as well as could be expected" in White Cross Hospital, Columbus, following an emergency operation Sunday afternoon to remove a blood clot from his brain.

Dr. Harry Lefever, who performed the operation, was quoted by Jimmy's father, H. T. Hoffman, as saying that "had we waited another 24 hours, there would have been no need for an operation."

Hoffman said he became anxious about his son's condition when partial paralysis began to make its appearance last week. It was noticeable first, he said, in Jimmy's eyes and then in his face.

It was then, he explained, that he took the matter up with his physician and made an appointment with Dr. Lefever.

Jimmy was taken to the Columbus hospital in the Gerstner ambulance about 8:30 P. M. Saturday.

There he was placed under observation by specialists and X-rays taken an interperiod.

The operation was performed at 3 P. M. Sunday—as soon as the diagnosis was completed by the specialists.

Hoffman, who returned here Monday, said the surgeons had described the next three days as "critical" and had added that it might be three months before his recovery is complete.

Hoffman said that it had been explained after the operation that the blood clot that resulted from the golf ball had been removed, but that there was always a remote possibility of complications in such a delicate brain operation.

Mrs. Hoffman remained at the hospital to be constantly at the bedside of her son.

Hoffman said it was found that Jimmy, who soon will be 14 years old, had suffered both a concussion and skull fracture when hit by the ball.

Jimmy's father said time and time again "I can't understand what made Jimmy run out in front of that boy (Glen Milstead) when he was driving."

The ball hit Jimmy about half an inch above his right temple. He was knocked unconscious.

He was rushed to the office of Dr. Paul S. Craig for emergency treatment and later taken home. Dr. Craig said later that he regarded his condition too critical at that time to try to take him to the hospital more than 40 miles away. So, he was taken in the ambulance, very carefully and slowly to avoid unnecessary jolts, to his home, 609 High Street. There he kept him under observation constantly until hospitalization was considered urgent.

Jimmy and Glen, who had been caddy at the Country Club, had taken advantage of the slack time in the afternoon to play a game when the accident occurred.

Catholic-Czech

(Continued from Page One) said, would be looked upon as a political incident.

CHURCH STEPS IN
VATICAN CITY, June 20.—(AP)—The Roman Catholic Church today excommunicated members of the government-sponsored Catholic Action Society of Communist-dominated Czechoslovakia.

The sacred congregation of the holy office issued a decree which condemned the group as a schismatic one fraudulently labeled.

The decree, published in Osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper, declared: "Recently the opponents of the Catholic Church in Czechoslovakia founded a so-called Catholic action by which they tried to induce the Catholics of that republic to desert the Catholic Church and to deny obedience to the legitimate pastors of the church."

Nevada is known as the Sagebrush state and its official flower is the sagebrush.

Mainly About People

John E. Barnes was brought from Mercy Hospital, Columbus, to his home at 622 Sycamore Street, Saturday, in the Hook and Son ambulance.

Bobby Chaney, son of Mrs. Homer Morrow of near Sabina, entered Children's Hospital, Columbus, Friday evening for observation and treatment.

Frank Snodgrass sustained a fractured left thumb Monday morning while storing hay in a mow on the F. C. Mossberger farm. The injury was X-rayed and treated by Dr. J. H. Persinger.

Mrs. Richard Dolphin and infant son, Kenneth Ray, were brought from Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus, to their home at 222½ North Fayette Street, Monday morning, in the Parrell ambulance.

Barbara Satchell, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Satchell, 212 Grand Avenue, was treated by Dr. James E. Rose, Sunday evening for an injured elbow suffered when she fell from the front porch at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Halliday of the Chillicothe Road have named their six pound son born in White Cross Hospital, Columbus, June 16, John Albert. Mrs. Halliday was taken to the hospital early Thursday morning in the Gerstner ambulance.

Judy Lynn Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis, who reside at the Fayette Hotel, was taken to the office of Dr. J. H. Persinger Monday morning where X-ray pictures showed a fractured left shoulder suffered in a fall Sunday afternoon.

Richard McCoy, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George McCoy of Broadway, was treated for a badly burned eye and given a tetanus shot after being injured Saturday when small boys were playing with caps, one exploding and striking him in the eye.

Mrs. Louise Boyer returned Monday from a weekend spent in Cincinnati, where she attended a conference and style show given by the New York and Chicago stylists. Mrs. Boyer is head of the fashion department at the Montgomery Ward Company store here.

Carolyn Sue Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mann, 903 East Temple Street, Beverly Ann Butcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Butcher, of Jeffersonville, and Freda Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Brown, of near this city, underwent tonsilectomies performed by Dr. J. H. Persinger Monday morning.

Jerry B. Ferneau was taken from his home at 913 Sycamore Street to Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus, and returned Saturday morning in the Hook and Son ambulance, for the removal of a body and leg cast which he has been in since receiving severe back injuries and a broken ankle in a fall April 14. He is said to be recovering nicely.

The Weather

COYT A STOOKEY Observer
Minimum yesterday 66
Minimum last night 65
Maximum today 72
Precipitation 0
Minimum 8 A. M. today 68
Maximum this date 1948 75
Minimum this date 1948 55
Precipitation this date 1948 44

Associated Press temperature maximum showing weather conditions last night.
Minimum yesterday and minimum chart
Akron, clear 90 68
Atlanta, city 87 69
Atlantic City, rain 76 60
Bismarck, rain 81 54
Boston, city 87 69
Buffalo, city 87 69
Chicago, clear 92 71
Cincinnati, clear 91 65
Cleveland, clear 90 70
Columbus, clear 91 70
Dayton, clear 90 68
Detroit, city 86 68
Dubuque, rain 92 66
Fort Worth, pt. cldy 95 70
Indianapolis, clear 89 68
Kansas City, clear 93 73
Los Angeles, clear 78 53
Louisville, clear 89 66
Miami, city 83 70
Milwaukee, pt. cldy 81 69
New Orleans, clear 89 71
New York, pt. cldy 82 69
Oklahoma City, clear 90 71
Pittsburgh, clear 88 66
Portland, clear 88 67
Tucson, clear 100 72

3C's
Drive-In Theatre
Washington C. H., O.
Tonight

BEST FIESTA!
BUD ABBOTT
LOU COSTELLO
in MEXICAN HAYRIDE
with VIRGINIA GREY
LUBA MALINA
JOHN HUBBARD
Tues.-Wed. "Drums"

Fr. Otto Guenther Delivers Sermon

Father Otto F. Guenther, pastor of St. Colman's Catholic Church here, delivered the principal sermon at the laying of the cornerstone for the new St. Peter's Church in Chillicothe.

The cornerstone and rededication of St. Peter's Church took place Sunday, just two years to the day, after the original edifice had burned.

The Very Reverend Frank Krusekamp, pastor of St. Peter's Church, officiated at the ceremonies.

Fr. Guenther's sermon was developed from a theme of "Buildings." He told the congregation that while museums are for the housing of art treasures, the churches house spiritual treasures and that while hospitals are for healing bodies, churches are for healing souls.

A number of members of the St. Colman's Church parish went to Chillicothe for the services.

Reorganization Plan

(Continued from Page One) a cabinet member as secretary of welfare.

An undersecretary and three assistant secretaries of welfare would be created and the office of federal security administrator abolished.

In greater detail, the other five reorganization plans would:

1. Transfer the bureau of employment security, now in FSA, to the department of labor. The bureau deals with unemployment insurance and job placement.

This plan also transfers to labor the functions of the veterans placement service board and abolishes that board.

2. Empower the postmaster general to reorganize the post office. He would take over authority now lodged in subordinate officers and agencies of the department.

This plan sets up an advisory board for the department made up of the postmaster general, a newly created deputy and seven members representing the public. The idea is to bring the agency in closer touch with public needs.

The plan provides for four assistant postmaster generals but drops the designations "first," "second" and so on. It abolishes the offices of postal controller, purchasing agent and bureau of accounts.

3. Transfer the national security council and the national security resources board to the executive office of the president. These agencies now report to the president but are more like independent agencies than parts of his staff.

4. Make the chairman of the U. S. civil service commission the boss of all its executive and administrative affairs, while leaving policy questions to the bi-partisan three-member commission.

5. Make the chairman the chief executive and administrative officer of the U. S. maritime commission. He would take responsibility for appointment of its personnel and the direction of their activities.

The National Security Council is the cabinet-rank of committee created to advise the president of defense policy. Its members include the secretaries of state, defense, war, navy and air force and the chairman of the National Security Resources Board (NSR B).

The NSRB, now headed temporarily by presidential assistant John R. Steelman, is charged with drafting and keeping up to date a plan of industrial mobilization for any war emergency.

In bringing both the defense-planning agencies into the executive office, Mr. Truman hopes to bring about a closer coordination of defense affairs, directly under his eye.

Latest Convenience Is Drive-in Bank

COLUMBUS, June 20.—(AP)—Columbus citizens, accustomed to drive-in restaurants and food stores, theaters—and more recently church services, soon will be introduced to such banking services.

The City National Bank and Trust Co., said a new branch office being planned (on Elentany River Road) will enable customers to transact routine business without leaving their automobiles.

J. H. McCoy, City National president, said the step is being taken in view of increasing traffic and parking problems encountered by customers who must drive to the bank's present offices.

Floods Subsidizing

(Continued from Page One) parched the surrounding New England vicinity since the Memorial Day weekend. The weather bureau said, however, that the showers "didn't give much relief to the area."

Elsewhere in the country, seasonal warm and humid weather was forecast for today. Showers and thunderstorms extended across the north central part of the nation.

Good "corn growing weather" was reported in the corn belt of Iowa, Illinois, southern Wisconsin and Michigan. Last night's temperatures were in the 66 to 75-degrees range and humidity was high.

Fire Burns Clubhouse

CLEVELAND, June 20.—(AP)—The clubhouse of the Beechmont Country Club was destroyed by fire last night. Club officials estimated damage at between $75,000 and $100,000.

FAYETTE
Mon. Last Showing
Feature Shown First

THE DEVIL'S IN COMMAND!

DOWN to the SEA in SHIPS

20th Century Fox
Starring Richard Widmark, Barrymore, Dean Stockwell
WIDMARK-BARRYMORE
Plus
Shows 7:00-9:20 P. M.

Fayette Lodge
No. 107, F. & A. M.
Regular Meeting
Wednesday, June 22
7:30 P. M.
All Members Are Requested To Be Present.
W. W. Humphries W. M.
R. P. Heath, Sec'y.

IT'S A FACT!!

We Buy, Butcher and Sell
Fayette County's Top Hogs

Pork Chops

Choice Center Cuts

lb. 65c

HELFRICH Super Market
PLENTY OF FREE PARKING
806 DELAWARE

Solon Method OK'd During Spy Trials

WASHINGTON, June 20.—(AP)—For the second time in as many weeks, the U. S. circuit court of appeals today upheld the House un-American activities committee in cases challenging its investigating methods.

The court ruled unanimously the committee did not violate constitutional rights when in 1946 it demanded "all the books, records, documents and correspondence" of the national federation for constitutional liberties.

The decision upheld the contempt conviction of George Marshall, chairman of the federation, who refused to deliver the records. Marshall was convicted in U. S. district court here in April, 1948, and sentenced to $500 fine and three months in jail.

Donation Boxes Will Be Collected July 5

Announcement was made today that the Washington C. H. Lions Club will pick up containers from downtown business establishments July 5 which have been used to help raise money to send the WHS band to New York.

Money collected will be turned over to the Washington C. H. board of education, according to Bob Terhune, president of the Lions Club.

Research Doctor Dies At Cincinnati Hospital

CINCINNATI, June 20.—(AP)—Dr. Samuel Elgart, 37, a research fellow at the May Institute for medical research at Jewish Hospital, died there of a heart ailment Saturday night. A native of Boston, he recently returned from Oak Ridge, Tenn., where he conducted experiments in use of radioactive isotopes to fight disease.

READ THE CLASSIFIED ADS

RUPTURE
Sufferers, Holzman's scientific mechanical method has helped others. Investigate before you invest. Men, women, children and babies, also female troubles, dropped stomach and other abdominal problems. No charge for consultation or examination. Washington C. H. Cherry Hotel, Thursday, June 23, 11 A. M. P. M. Plenty Wash. C. H. F. HOLTZMAN reference.

NO CASE TOO DIFFICULT
Write for date of next trip to your locality.
COLUMBUS RUPTURE CLINIC
795 East Main St., Columbus 5, Ohio

Always A Great Show At The Cool Palace!

Shows Starts At 6 P. M.

PALACE
Always 21

NOW PLAYING

2 NEW FEATURES

Feature No. 1
First Time Shown in City!

Roaring GUNPLAY!
Slashing HORRORS!
Fighting FISTS!
ROBERT L. LIPPERT
RICHARD ARLEN - PATRICIA MORISON
MARY BETH HUGHES
THE RETURN OF WILDFIRE
Produced by SEPA-TONE
JAMES WILLIAMS - RED BARTY
CARL POE - MARY - STELLY - ANDERSON - MELT - BANE

Tops In Thrills!

Feature No. 2
THEY'RE HOT ON THE TRAIL OF A HIDDEN TREASURE... AND A KILLER

"Gas House Kids in HOLLYWOOD"

CARL - ALFALFA - SWITZER

Markets

Local Quotations

GRAIN
Wheat 1.71
Corn 1.22
Oats .60
Soybeans 2.13
BUTTER-EGGS-POULTRY
F. B. Coop Quotations
Butterfat Premium 51c
Butterfat Regular 46c
Eggs 40c
Heavy Hens 20c
Light Hens 18c
Heavy Broilers 24c
Light Broilers 20c
Old Roosters 12c

Livestock Prices

(FAYETTE STOCK YARDS)
WASHINGTON C. H.—(Fayette Stock Yards)—Hogs 180-220 lbs at $21. Sows $15.50 down.

CINCINNATI, June 20.—(AP)—(U. S. Dept. Agr.)—(From information available to 10:20 A. M.)—Salable hogs 3,000; general market fairly active; mostly 25 higher on all classes compared to Friday's average. Good and choice 180-240 lbs $21-22.25; weights under 225 lbs mostly at top; deck 228 lbs at price; few 250-290 lbs 19.25-20.75; odd 300-350 lbs 18.25; few 140-160 lbs $19; good and choice sows 12.50-17; bulk $16 down; extreme heavies 13.25.

Cattle 900; calves 350; cattle trade slow to moderately active; about steady. B. Cautious buying accounts slow moving dressed stock; indifferent demand; light dry fed steers and heifers getting best inquiries; rather scarce; few good 675 lb to 900 lb mixed yearlings $26-26.50; truck lot 1265 lb steers $26; medium and good 180-240 lbs $21-22.25; bulk medium and good sausage bulls with weight 19.50-20; odd heads 20.50-21.50; light dairy breeds down to $15; good $20 lb yearling bull 21.50; vealers about steady; good and choice scarce $24-26; largely common and medium $18-22.50.

Sheep 600; spring lambs fairly active; early 50-60 higher; slaughter ewes about steady; good and choice spring lambs $25-26; mixed medium to choice 24.50-26; common to good 22.50-23.50; slaughter ewe quotable up to $9.

CHICAGO, June 20.—(AP)—(USDA)—Salable hogs 7,000; fairly active. 25-50 higher on both butchers and sows; most advance on lightweights both classes early; closed less active, very uneven on sows; top 21.50 sparsely; most good and choice 170-240 lb 20.75-21.25; 250-280 lb 19.75-20.50; heavier weights scarce; few 250-320 lb 18.50-19.50; few lots up to around 400 lb as low as 16.25; fat sows under 275 lb $17-18.25; few 18.50; 400-450 lb $15-16.50; 475-550 lb 13.75-14.75; heavier weights down to around $13 for 600 lb averages; good clearance.

Salable cattle 8,500; salable calves 500; uneven but averaging steady on all slaughter classes; top $28 for two lots higher choice around 1,250 lb steers and for load 990 lb heifer; bulk good and choice fed steers $27-27.50; load or so 27.75; medium to low-good steers $22-24.75; load of choice around 1,100 lb heifers 27.25; most medium and good heifers $22-23; common and medium beef cows 15.50-18; canners and cutters 12.50-15.25; medium and good sausage bulls 19.50-21.50; mostly $21 down; common to choice vealers $19-22; top $25; steers and feeders slow steady to weak; load choice 675 lb yearling feeding steers 25.75.

Salable sheep 200; native slaughter lambs in meager supply; steady to small killers at $26 down; top $26 ewes dull at mainly $6-9.

Produce Market

CINCINNATI, June 20.—(AP)—Eggs, cases included, U. S. consumer graded, A large 51-54½; A medium 49-51½; B large 48-50½; wholesale graded, large, minimum of 60 percent A quality 43½; current receipts 37-44.

Poultry, fowls, heavy 4 lbs and over 24-25; light 22-23; heavy fryers up to 3 lbs 22; light 22; heavy broilers 28; light 25; old roosters 18-19.

Butter, wholesale, 1 lb prints 59; ½ lb prints 58; ¼ lb prints 60; butterfat, premium 49; regular 46.

Grain Markets

CHICAGO, June 20.—(AP)—WHEAT: none. CORN: No. 1 yellow 1.37½-38½; No. 2 1.37½-38; No. 3 1.33-36½; No. 4 1.31½; No. 5 1.26; sample grade 121-22. OATS: No. 1 heavy mixed 71½-72; No. 1 mixed 70½; No. 1 heavy white 74½-75; No. 1 extra heavy white 75; No. 2 heavy white 74½; No. 3 heavy white 73 sample grade heavy white 70½; sample grade heavy special red 68½; Barley nominal; malting 1.08-1.12; feed 80-1.06. Soybeans: none.

Financial Market

NEW YORK, June 20.—(AP)—Demand for air line stocks put a touch of life in today's market. Elsewhere supply and demand reached close balance. Key issues moved only small fractions from the previous finish and numerous stocks showed no change at all. Gains and losses were about even.

Enjoy This Great Show In A New, Comfortable State!

Matinee Daily At 1:00 P. M.
It's Cool Here!

chakeres' STATE

Always 2 Big Hits

Today & Tues.

2 SMASH HITS

Feature No. 1

THOSE FUNATICS ARE AT IT AGAIN!
BUD ABBOTT-COSTELLO
'It Ain't Hay'

Feature No. 2

TWO SHUDDER-BUGS... on a Spooking Spree!
OLSEN and JOHNSON
GHOST CATCHERS

"HOLLYWOOD WOULD BLUSH AT"—Time
"A CINEMATIC SHOCK"—Cue
PAISAN
Recommended For Adults Only

WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY At The STATE

NO PICNIC IS COMPLETE... WITHOUT TIP-TOP POTATO CHIPS!

THE BEST BUY
HALF-POUND
ECONOMY SIZE

Insist on TIP-TOP
POTATO
CHIPS
Famous for their Flavor

Will You Volunteer To Get This One Extra Swimming Pool Pledge?

There is one fellow whom the swimming pool committee asks you give special consideration. Some feel he is a tough nut to crack. They concede he has done some fine things for the community in the past. We know he is a good prospect and should give generously. But he requires special treatment.

It's a funny thing about this fellow. Sometimes he stresses unduly in his mind the extraneous issue as to what others give, instead of questioning what he can and should give himself. He doesn't always look at a subject in its true light. Occasionally he argues about some detail that is entirely aside from the merit of the pool itself. But he isn't a bad fellow at heart.

The committee feels the best approach to this man is to put the facts right on the table. It's up to you to get serious with him. Emphasize how we have all let the kids down badly on a swimming pool.

Try to talk to him alone, when he will not be interrupted. Be sure you review the whole situation. Do not accept as final his casual idea as to what he thinks he should give. Ask him to consider it further, in the light of the need. Also in the light of the many blessings he has enjoyed. Emphasize what a sound investment this is for the community and for our young people. Talk to him straight from the shoulder.

He is the one prospect we want you to tackle for the swimming pool. He comes first. Will you volunteer to see him? You can talk to him at home almost any evening! Or you will find him in the mirror every morning.

This man is you. Will you volunteer to have him share these inner thoughts with you? It is only by such a spirit that you will give your best to the swimming pool. This cause needs both your dollars and your determined efforts for the pool.

Committee of Friends-Like-You-Interested in Our Boys & Girls

The Nation Today

BY JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, June 20—(P)—The hot days are here, a good time to keep cool, but this country still will be excited over Communism for a while yet.

The trial of Alger Hiss, former state department official charged with perjury, goes into its fourth week Monday and will last another week or more.

Whittaker Chamber, one-time Communist by his own admission, said Hiss gave him secret state department papers when Chambers was working in Washington as a messenger in a Communist spy-ring.

And on Monday the trial of Judith Coplon, which has been going on for two months, will drag on a little longer, and will probably make some headlines before it is over. It's made plenty already.

Miss Coplon, charged with spying for Russia, is now on the stand and when her own lawyer, Archibald Palmer, gets through having her explain why she took FBI reports, the government prosecutors will tear into her.

Miss Coplon, 28 years old and 100 pounds in weight, says she collected secret government reports the way a novelist collects notes for a book, and for the same reason: she wanted to write a book.

In New York the trial of 11 top Communist party officials, charged with teaching conspiracy to overthrow this government by force, will drone on, maybe till the end of July.

The 11 Communists have been sitting at their trial for months and, in spite of their many wrangles with the judge, theirs has been a pretty dull trial so far.

There's no telling what the House unAmerican activities committee may do during the hot summer days. It's unpredictable.

The committee—acting after receiving a petition from the Sons of the American Revolution—has asked a number of schools and colleges for a list of the textbooks they're using.

That brought a roar from educators and editorial writers worried about academic freedom.

The SAR charges in its petition that a number of educators—either because they're misguided or contemptuous of the American capitalistic system—have put stuff in textbooks that will slant students' minds towards Socialism and Communism.

The SAR doesn't make much distinction between Socialism and Communism and wants the committee to examine the books for evidence of either.

At this point the committee has asked for the lists of books. It will decide later whether to have an investigation.

The Paris conference between Secretary of State Acheson and the foreign ministers of Russia, Britain and France doesn't seem to be getting anywhere and probably will break up on that note.

For some time after that break-up there's likely to be quite a bit of news on relations between this country and Russia.

So, all in all, it looks like the weather will be warm for a while.

INJURIES FATAL

XENIA—John Henry Steele, 20, Fairfield, is dead of injuries sustained when his auto collided with a semi-trailer.

A good paint a good bargain!

Save yourself good money with this extra-fine highly pigmented house paint. Tough enamel-like surface. Self-cleaning—Minimum wearing action. Priced no more than ordinary paint, but figures less per year. INVESTIGATE!

Enamelized HOUSE PAINT
Brilliant White—Beautiful Colors!

Here's where to buy it:

Wilson's Hardware

Washington C. H., Ohio
"If Wilson Doesn't Have It - It Will Be Hard To Find!"
Phone 2517

Ohio Crippled Children Fund Over $339,027

Sales in Fayette County Go Over $1200 Mark

Fayette Countians purchased $1225 worth of Easter Seals during the 1949 campaign this year, and in the state total sales reached $339,027.89 for the Ohio Society of Crippled Children, of which James A. Hewitt is president.

President Hewitt said the figure will undoubtedly go higher because late contributions are still being received.

Early, incomplete reports across the nation indicated that a minimum of $6,250,000 has been contributed through the seals. "When final reports are made July 1," Hewitt predicted, "the national total may reach $7,000,000."

The nation-wide campaign was conducted by more than 2,000 state and local units of The National Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Hewitt said that funds derived from the annual sale of Easter Seals will continue and expand the following three-point program of crippled children's societies:

Education of the public, professional workers and parents. Research to provide increased knowledge of the causes of handicapping conditions and the prevention, care and treatment of those conditions.

Direct service to the handicapped, including case findings, diagnostic clinics and medical care; physical, occupational, and speech and hearing therapy; treatment and training centers; special education; psychological services; vocational guidance and training; camps; recreational services; artificial aids; and equipment for testing and therapy.

More than 90 percent of the funds contributed in Ohio will remain in the state—76 percent with county and local groups who sponsored seal sales and 15.7 percent with The Ohio Society. The remaining 8.3 percent goes to support of consultation and education services maintained by The National Society.

READ THE CLASSIFIED ADS

Samuel D. Sauel
Optometrist

Eyes Examined
Prescriptions Filled
Phone 22741
Evenings by Appointment
Hours 9:00 to 5:00
504 E. Market St.

Room and Board

By Gene Ahern

Woman Assistant

(Continued from Page One)

Lucile Petry has been the kind of worker who found fun in her job since she was a child in Ohio and Delaware. She took care of the neighbors' kids—for pay or to be accommodating, picked strawberries, and worked in a canning factory, a general store, a broker's office.

Her childhood was spent in Lewisburg, where she was born, and in Felton, Del. Her father, D. A. Petry, took the family to Felton when he became a school principal there. He and Mrs. Petry are retired now in Selbyville, Del. Graduated with honors from the University of Delaware, she got her nurse's diploma at Johns Hop-

POISON IVY
OAK or SUMAC
Science has discovered an excellent new treatment for ivy, oak or sumac poisoning. It's gentle and safe, dries up the blisters in a surprisingly short time, — often within 24 hours. At druggists, 59¢

Ask for IVY-DRY

Goes twice as far—tastes twice as good... that's Pepsi-Cola. Buy 6 at a time and save!

WHY TAKE LESS...WHEN PEPSI'S BEST!

Bottled by: Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Columbus Under Appointment from Pepsi-Cola Company, N.Y.

"Listen to 'Counter-Spy,' Tuesday and Thursday evenings, your ABC station"

Power - wower!

Come in—learn about the 5 basic advantages of Packard high-compression performance!

1 It's s-m-o-o-t-h-e-r—because this Packard's mighty 135-HP engine is not just an eight... it's an advanced design, precision-built Packard eight—with new advancements that make it smoother, quieter than ever before!

2 More responsive, because of "free-breathing" engine design. Sample its nimbleness in traffic... then go out on the open road and discover "safety-sprint" reserve power.

3 Thriftier! Today's Packard is writing the gas economy news of the fine car field!

NEW LOWER PRICES
begin at $2224

*for the 135-HP Packard Eight Club Sedan—delivered in Detroit; state and local taxes, if any, and white sidewalls ($21), extra.

4 More durable! Because it's built to Packard standards of design, materials, and workmanship.

5 And it stays in tune! Simplicity of design and installation makes it easy to maintain the peak performance of this husky Packard eight.

ASK THE MAN WHO OWNS ONE

Golden Anniversary Packard

MERIWEATHER MOTOR CO.

1120 Clinton Ave.

Washington C. H., Ohio

Religion Enters Jobless Pay Claim

YOUNGSTOWN, June 20—(P)—A Youngstown woman today filed suit against the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, charging she was denied unemployment pay because she refused a job which required her to work on Saturday, the Jewish Sabbath. The suit was filed by Mary Jane Heisler in common pleas court here, asking reversal of the Ohio bureau's ruling. Miss Heisler was denied unemployment pay by the state board of review May 23 because she refused to accept a referral to a Youngstown Hospital which would require Saturday employment. She declares the board's ruling is against both Ohio and the United States Constitutions which guarantee the right to worship according to conscience.

kins Hospital School of Nursing in 1927. She taught in the Yale University School of Nursing and became assistant director of the University of Minnesota School of Nursing for 10 years. Along the way she got her master's degree at the Columbia University Teachers College. Her vacations always have been devoted to study in one school or another. In 1941 Miss Petry became the first woman to hold a public health service administrative post, becoming director of the division of nursing education. She retained the title when, two years later, she became dean of the Cornell University—New York University Hospital School of Nursing in New York City. A month later, however, she took a leave of absence to head the cadet nurse corps.

TRIAL IS SET

CHILLICOTHE—Floyd Leroy (Buck) Richards, 27, Londonderry, goes on trial in common pleas court June 29 on a charge of shooting with intent to kill Frank Barton, of Adelphia.

ITCH

Don't Suffer Another Minute No matter how long you have suffered or how many remedies you have tried for the itching of psoriasis, eczema, infections, athlete's foot or other externally caused skin irritations—you can get wonderful results from the use of WONDER SALVE—a war time discovery developed for the boys in the Army—now for the home folks. No acids, no alcohol, no painful application. WONDER SALVE is white, greaseless, pain relieving and antiseptic. No ugly appearance. Get WONDER SALVE—get results. It is wonderful. Sold in Washington, C. H. by Riser Drug Store or your home town druggist

FISHERMAN DROWNS
PORTSMOUTH—In an attempt to land a nine pound catfish in the Ohio River, Clyde Ellis Brown, 31, was drowned and a companion was rescued when their boat upset.

The Bureau of Reclamation's first major storage dam was the Roosevelt, on the Salt River in Arizona, which was dedicated in 1911.

GET THE-FACTS - AND YOU WON'T GET HURT

QUALITY for QUALITY, We Are Never Undersold.

We welcome the opportunity to prove this statement -- you be the judge.

King-Kash Furniture

Featuring Nationally Advertised Lines.

"Your Furniture Bargain Spot"

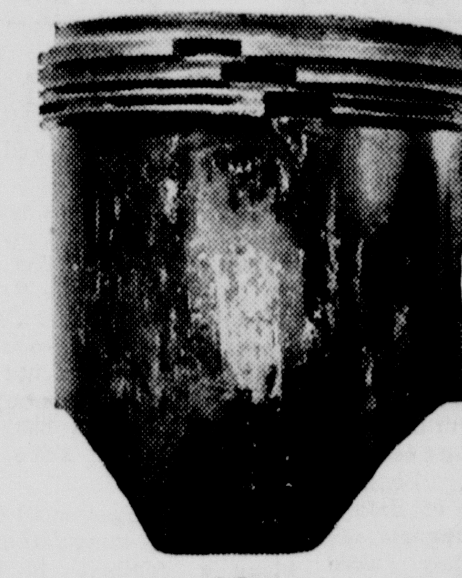

— East Court St. Next To Craig's —

Open Evenings by Appointment - Phone 26361

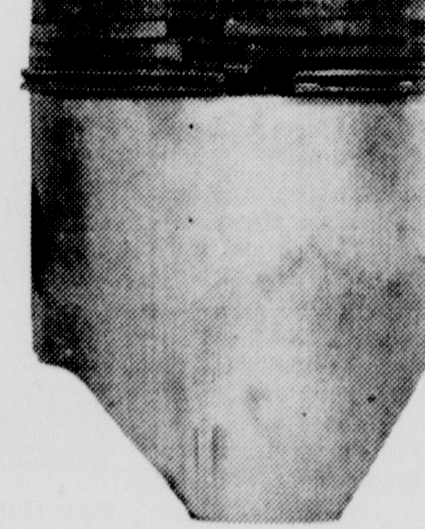

See the difference!

This costs you money!

Dirty, sludged-up, sticky pistons and rings drag up and down cylinder walls... take extra power... cheat you of gasoline mileage... lead eventually to big engine repair bills.

*A

*B

This saves you money!

It's just common sense that a clean engine runs better, lasts longer, costs you less to operate and saves repairs.

THIS makes the Difference!

Sohio H.Q. Motor Oil contains a special cleansing agent (detergent additive) that actually keeps vital engine parts clean while it keeps your engine safely lubricated.

Ask for Sohio H.Q... the low consumption motor oil that keeps your engine clean, safe and running economically... at SOHIO

* These are unretouched photographs of pistons from comparable engines run under identical conditions in a test recognized as standard by U. S. Government, automotive and petroleum engineers. The engine containing piston "B" was run on Sohio H.Q. Motor Oil with the special cleansing agent; the engine containing piston "A" was run on an oil without the special cleansing agent.

Trees As An Asset To This Community

Many visitors who have stopped in Washington C. H., or tourists who pass through, repeatedly have remarked about the hundreds of beautiful shade trees in this community.

We have also heard many traveling salesmen living in larger cities, whose routes include this city, declare that they would like to make Washington C. H. their home site. They say it represents the best in everything as an ideal place to rear a family.

Again and again, however, we have heard people particularly refer to the attractiveness of our well shaded streets, and talk about how much this means to any city.

Especially is this noticeable among travelers from western states who come into Ohio bound for points east. They speak of their renewed appreciation of the trees which beautify the landscape in these sections.

The great western states are now beginning, however, to benefit by the tree-planting project started in the depression days as a WPA undertaking. The shelter-belt program sponsored the planting of 220,000,000 trees between 1935 and 1943. Eighty-five percent of these have survived the drought years. They have checked erosion, held moisture, and tempered the hot winds of the plains. In some places better crops have resulted from their shade in the fields and during last winter's blizzards they saved the lives of many cattle who were sheltered under them.

Nebraska reports two and a quarter million trees planted this spring by members of the federal Soil Conservation Service, continuing this work.

A landscape dotted with trees pleases the eye with its beauty and is soothing and restful. Tourists, driving over long miles of sun-baked pavement, greet with relief an elm or maple-bordered city or village street. Roadside tree-planting in rural areas is also enthusiastically approved by the nation's drivers.

Regimenters Were Wrong

According to government surveys, the supply of livestock will be better than adequate this year. The excellent grain crop, coupled with a good demand situation, are among the factors which have encouraged farmers and ranchers to hold meat animal production to high levels.

It is interesting to imagine what would have happened had Congress bowed to the urging of the executive branch and reimposed price controls and rationing a year or two ago. In this, we are dealing in the realm of theory, but experience here and abroad provides an accurate basis for speculation.

The whole argument for price control was that it would be used to arbitrarily push prices down to a lower level. But the farmer would still have had to pay current high wages and other costs. In some cases, the legal meat prices established by the deep thinkers in the government might have been below the cost of production. With this possibility confronting him, it would have been a rare farmer indeed who'd have produced as much livestock for market as possible. The great majority of farmers would have been exceedingly wary, and the total available meat supply would have inevitably declined sharply.

On top of that, more and more of the supply would have found its way into the black market, to be sold at illegal, excessively high prices that only the few could afford to pay. Rigid government restrictions always play into the hands of people who are looking for ways to make a quick dollar at the expense of the public.

As matters turned out, meat is in good supply and it is being sold at a fair price, costs considered. But conditions would have been very different if we'd accepted the arguments of those who champion a regimented economy.

Foxhole Against the Atom Bomb

By Hal Boyle

LUXEMBOURG.—(via airmail) —(P)—The best foxhole in Europe in the event of an atomic war is the grand duchy of Luxembourg.

This tiny postcard country has been prepared for 200 years against the dropping of the atom bomb. Deep beneath the breathtaking hills of its capital, one of the world's most picturesque cities, lie 17 miles of defensive tunnels.

"They were dug in the early 1700s, and they could easily hold everyone in the country," said David Ned Blackmer, 33, of Binghamton, N. Y.

The little monarchy, ruled by Grand Duchess Charlotte, is only 999 miles square and has a population of about 300,000.

Blackmer, an ex-G. I., decided after the war—like many another American soldier—he wanted to learn more about the lands he had fought across. So when he had recuperated from a severe head wound, he came here to study the culture of Luxembourg to win his doctorate degree.

"The people have been extraordinarily friendly and cooperative," he said.

Luxembourgers have had a weary time trying to live up to their national motto: "We want to remain what we are."

The country is a natural stronghold, a crossroads for invasion armies moving across Europe, and its name means "little fortress." It has been a military outpost since Roman times.

More than most small countries Luxembourg knows the cost of being a football to the big powers. It agreed in 1867 to demolish its fortifications in return for a guarantee of "eternal neutrality." Since then German troops have wheeled across it in three wars.

German commanders took what they wanted, even forced Luxembourgers to serve in their armies. But this tiny door mat of Europe is beginning to bristle. It has found "neutrality" doesn't pay.

"They are a little imperialistic now," laughed Blackmer. "They want a slice of Germany. That is they want the land—but not the Germans who live on it."

And Luxembourg has raised its pre-war army of 300 men to 10,000. This is really a token gesture, however, to give a legalistic basis to its claim that its soldiers should be treated as war prisoners rather than impressed into foreign conquering armies.

How long Luxembourgers could hold out in the event of another invasion attack is problematical—unless they were quickly reinforced.

"But they are wiring the old tunnels again," said Blackmer. During the last war Luxembourg served as the headquarters of Gen. George S. Patton's Third Army and the U. S. Ninth Airforce. It was saved from destruction during the battle of the Bulge in 1944, and the people are now strongly pro-American.

"There is no university here and Luxembourgers used to send their sons to Germany for higher education," said Blackmer. "Now it is the dream of every boy to study in America."

"They love American cars, and there are probably more American-made cars per capita here than there are in the United States."

On the other hand, there are also more Luxembourgers in Chicago than there are in the capital city here, and more Luxembourgers in America than now live in Luxembourg country itself.

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

But the fact is that it is not more preposterous than the instructions that President Truman gave to George Marshall which, I am told, were written by John Carter Vincent, whose conduct in the state department should be investigated by Congress, or the absurd accounting between the United States and China which makes one wonder whether they have an adding machine in the state department.

So, Mr. Acheson comes home without a bone and that is all to the good and better than expected, and so far as we know, the trip has not cost us billions of dollars or our honor and dignity as a people.

Furthermore, Dean Acheson has to be more careful than his predecessors. It is difficult to think of a period in American history when the state department, which he heads, was less popular and more suspect than it is today. Every new investigation and every trial of Communists brings to light additional and more startling errors of the state department. True, much of this criticism reflects upon such managers of our foreign relations as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Ed Stettinius, James Byrnes

and George Marshall, but Acheson has to bear the brunt of it all and it requires astuteness and care not to have it all dumped on his head. Therefore, even if he prefers some deal with the Russians, which I do not believe, he would not dare come home with anything like Yalta or Potsdam. At any rate, he is not doing so and that is to his credit.

The British are pressing him to recognize Mao Tze-Tung in China on a deal by which Hongkong will be saved without a fight. Although such a deal would be temporary, the British are for it, because they have no longer any fight left in them. One of the much discussed tricks by which the Chinese Communists can be recognized without the United States actually doing it would be for the United Nations to do the job, the United States abstaining from the vote. This trick is so raw that nobody believes any American official could survive it, and most of Dean Acheson's friends say that it is too preposterous to believe.

Old War Scars Being Healed by French Policy

Partial Amnesty Granted Some of Minor Collaborators

By GODFREY ANDERSON
PARIS, June 20—(AP)—A move to heal some of the old wounds of the German occupation by granting a partial amnesty to minor "collaborators" is being studied by Minister of Justice Robert Lecourt.

Although the project is being kept under wraps pending consideration by the whole cabinet, it is freely forecast in the French press that it may be approved in time to take effect on the French national holiday (Bastille Day—July 14).

According to these reports a total of 56,000 dossiers of the "petits collabos" is now being reviewed by the ministry.

It is emphasized, however, that no general amnesty need be expected at this time. Any such move would come under hot fire from both left and right.

Some indulgence is likely only for those who, misled by the personal prestige of Marshall Petain, fell into a mild form of collaboration of a non-criminal nature. Those who receive such an amnesty, it is thought, will probably find that it is to be accompanied by five years or more of probation.

While the right of voting and fulfilling certain other civic functions might be withheld from the "petits collabos" during this period, the order forbidding them to exercise certain professions would probably be removed.

While the trials of more important collaborators still clog the machinery of French justice, it is perhaps significant that lately more and more authentic resisters have found themselves before the courts.

Families of Frenchmen who were shot by Maquis supporters during the war are now daring to claim damages through the courts for the alleged wrongful execution of their relatives.

No claim can be made in cases where the victim was killed in a fight between resisters and the German-backed Vichy Militia. But there were many cases of alleged collaborators being dragged from their beds at night and summarily executed in the name of liberty. Sometimes mistakes were made.

Resisters accused of such killings generally invoke the first article of law passed by General Charles De Gaulle's provisional administration at Algiers on July 6, 1943. This somewhat vaguely declares that "all acts committed after June 10, 1940, with the aim of serving the cause of the liberation of France are declared legal, even when they would have constituted infractions of the legislation in force at that time."

In a few cases the families have been able to prove that their dead relatives were not really collaborators. Most of the accused resisters have been acquitted.

The general public in France seems to be showing an increasing desire to wash out this particular page of an unhappy past. The recent appeals for a more lenient attitude to be adopted to aged Marshal Petain are symptomatic of this tendency.

As one deputy put it: "France seems to be suffering from a real masochism of justice. We started

Bike Parade Winners Are Honored

WEARING ASSORTED COSTUMES, winners in the annual Montgomery Ward & Co. bicycle parade line up on the courthouse steps for a picture.

A band of brightly decorated bicycles stopped downtown traffic Saturday long enough for the kids to get in a plug for bike safety and have some honors heaped on them.

Officially, it was the Montgomery Ward & Co.'s annual bicycle parade but unofficially it was time for youngsters to show off their originality with bicycle decorations.

The bikes got their first "dressing up" with colorful wheel discs with the words "I Ride Safely—Do You?" printed on them. They were given to each participant by the Montgomery Ward & Co. store.

Then the kids took over. One youngster carried two ducks in a basket hooked to the front on his bike.

A girl covered herself with a black witch's hood and converted the front of her bike into a horse.

Still another made a garland of flowers for herself and her bike.

More Than 80 Entries

With more than 80 riders, the bicycles started down Court Street and circled the square, coming to a stop along the entire west side of the courthouse.

Four judges who had been selected to help pick winners of various categories passed among the block-long array of bicycles.

Following talks by Bill Graham, assistant manager of the Montgomery Ward & Co. store in Washington C. H., City Manager Winston Hill and Frank Ellis, prizes were awarded to the winners.

First prize, a miniature portable radio, went to Judy McFadden for having the most beautiful or most novel looking bike.

Hugh Lintz won a BB gun for taking second. Other winners, with prizes which they received, are listed as follows:

Shirley Griffith, third, fishing rod; Marilyn Daughtery, fourth, pair of skates; Huett Roland, fifth, pair of skates and Ann Lintz, sixth, a pair of fender flaps.

Oldest Rider award

Jackie Johnson, who is 16, won the title as the "Oldest Rider" and a chrome carrier for his bike.

Little two-and-a-half-year-old Jack Powell won the title as the "Youngest Rider" and a bike light.

Eight consolation prizes were presented through the courtesy of the Montgomery Ward & Co.

Following the ceremony held on the west steps of the courthouse, the kids adjourned to the front of the Montgomery Ward & Co. store, where they were treated with Coca-Cola drinks, a courtesy of the local bottling company.

Bus Hits Auto Injuring Two

Sabina Is Scene of Serious Accident

Mrs. Elsie Carle, 68, of Wilmington, is in McClelland Hospital, Xenia, in a serious condition as result of injuries sustained in an auto-bus accident in Sabina Saturday.

Her husband, Edward H. Carle, 68, also was injured when the car in which they were riding was struck by a Greyhound bus near the west corporation of the town.

Mrs. Carle sustained serious lacerations and other injuries.

The Carle car had stopped and signaled for a left turn, when the bus, driven by Lester J. Ledoux, Cincinnati, struck it. Both vehicles were east bound.

Mrs. Carle remains in a critical condition. Her husband was released from the hospital after treatment.

When the bus hit the car, the impact turned the car completely over, with the wheels upward. Mrs. Carle had to be removed from the car in which she was pinned.

Bethlehem Ball Team Is Bought by Syndicate

BETHLEHEM, Pa., June 20—(AP)—Sale of the Bethlehem franchise in the American Professional Football League to a syndicate headed by Al Ennis, veteran sports promoter, and two coaches, was announced today.

Ennis is a former general manager of the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

READ THE CLASSIFIED ADS

Having a Coke Is Better Than Thinking About It

Coca-Cola
"Coke"

5¢

Ask for it either way... both trade-marks mean the same thing.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY THE FAYETTE COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO.
120 South Fayette St. Washington C. H., Ohio
© 1949, The Coca-Cola Company

Bigger Oranges Are Developed By Use of New Spray Chemical

By RENNIS TAYLOR
VANCOUVER, B. C. June 20—(AP)—One of the newer spray chemicals can make oranges grow larger.

The chemical is 2-4-D, best known as weed poison. It can increase the diameter of an orange or grapefruit by 1-8 of an inch, or one packing house size, says Dr. William S. Stewart, University of California plant physiologist.

Dr. Stewart told the American Association for the advancement of science yesterday of successful tests in California orange groves. The chemical previously had been used to produce larger pineapples in Hawaii.

Used in strong concentrations, the chemical causes plant cells to work themselves to death. In highly diluted solutions of 16 to 40 parts per million it apparently gives the fruit a longer growing period, Dr. Stewart reported.

Slightly stronger mixtures can make the fruit grow even larger but its quality drops. Dr. Stewart showed pictures of oranges almost double normal size but they were somewhat deformed and were less juicy than untreated oranges. Their skins also were abnormally thick.

The spray can be used commercially to improve size but it won't increase the fruit tonnage, Dr. Stewart said. The sprayed tree produce fewer fruits than unsprayed ones.

Used in strong concentrations, the chemical causes plant cells to work themselves to death. In highly diluted solutions of 16 to 40 parts per million it apparently gives the fruit a longer growing period, Dr. Stewart reported.

Slightly stronger mixtures can make the fruit grow even larger but its quality drops. Dr. Stewart showed pictures of oranges almost double normal size but they were somewhat deformed and were less juicy than untreated oranges. Their skins also were abnormally thick.

The spray can be used commercially to improve size but it won't increase the fruit tonnage, Dr. Stewart said. The sprayed tree produce fewer fruits than unsprayed ones.

Used in strong concentrations, the chemical causes plant cells to work themselves to death. In highly diluted solutions of 16 to 40 parts per million it apparently gives the fruit a longer growing period, Dr. Stewart reported.

Slightly stronger mixtures can make the fruit grow even larger but its quality drops. Dr. Stewart showed pictures of oranges almost double normal size but they were somewhat deformed and were less juicy than untreated oranges. Their skins also were abnormally thick.

The spray can be used commercially to improve size but it won't increase the fruit tonnage, Dr. Stewart said. The sprayed tree produce fewer fruits than unsprayed ones.

Used in strong concentrations, the chemical causes plant cells to work themselves to death. In highly diluted solutions of 16 to 40 parts per million it apparently gives the fruit a longer growing period, Dr. Stewart reported.

Slightly stronger mixtures can make the fruit grow even larger but its quality drops. Dr. Stewart showed pictures of oranges almost double normal size but they were somewhat deformed and were less juicy than untreated oranges. Their skins also were abnormally thick.

The spray can be used commercially to improve size but it won't increase the fruit tonnage, Dr. Stewart said. The sprayed tree produce fewer fruits than unsprayed ones.

Used in strong concentrations, the chemical causes plant cells to work themselves to death. In highly diluted solutions of 16 to 40 parts per million it apparently gives the fruit a longer growing period, Dr. Stewart reported.

Slightly stronger mixtures can make the fruit grow even larger but its quality drops. Dr. Stewart showed pictures of oranges almost double normal size but they were somewhat deformed and were less juicy than untreated oranges. Their skins also were abnormally thick.

PIPES CLOGGED?
Complete Drain Service
1/4" to 12" LINES - ANY LENGTH

NO DIGGING!

- NO PROPERTY DAMAGE
- NO DELAY
- FREE ESTIMATES

WORK GUARANTEED

ONLY THE Most Effective ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT USED

Call
Huffman Plumbing
Sales - Service
Phone 26501

Vacation
LOANS
Have A Good Time

This year with a low cost vacation loan.

American Loan AND FINANCE CO.
120 N. Fayette St.
Phone 22214

AGRICULTURAL WEED-NO-MORE

Cleans WEEDS out of CORN

Don't buy any 2-4-D weed killer until we give you all the facts on Agricultural Weed-No-More performance. Get our free booklet!

Don Scholl
3-C Highway West

EXPERT Watch and Clock REPAIR

ROLAND'S
Your Diamond Jeweler
233 E. Court St.

THE LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE

Cordially Invites The Public (Both Ladies and Gentlemen) — To Attend —

A Social Session
At Our Club Rooms
242 East Court Street

Something New Something Different
Tuesday Night, June 21
— 8 P. M. Prompt —

When you get a HAWKINSON TREAD

More than a Recap!

YOU'VE GOT SOMETHING Different!

BECAUSE CURED THE WAY THEY RUN

Flat Hawkison Curing Ring with Steam Heating Coil

- RUN COOLER
- LAST LONGER
- GIVE BETTER TRACTION
- BETTER CAR PERFORMANCE

Come In and Let Us Explain This Hawkison Method of Tire Treading

HAWKINSON TREAD SERVICE
1106 Wash. Ave. Phone 5681

Chrysler Offers You

Over 50 common sense advances that give you more for your money in safety, performance and comfort.

① New Value in Safety! Blow a tire at high speed, and Chrysler's unique Safety Rim Wheel holds the tire in place. Stop suddenly—exclusive foam rubber Safety Cushion Dash protects the child who may stand on the front seat. Electrically operated, non-stop, constant speed windshield wiper assures safer vision. Power applied to the engine doesn't slow its speed. These are typical Chrysler "firsts" that mean more for your money in safety.

② New Value in Performance! New High Compression Spithire engine features exclusive Waterproof Ignition. You can drive through high water, start instantly in dampest weather. Driving is easier and safer with sensational Prestomatic Fluid Drive Transmission. New Center Control Steering gives you new stability, handling ease, freedom from road shock. 14 big advances in performance make the new Chrysler the best performance value we ever offered!

③ New Value in Comfort! You can't appreciate how much more you get for your money until you step inside. Seats front and rear are wider. There's more headroom, legroom, shoulder room. Wider doorways, natural step-in entrances! Women enter and leave with dignity. Seats are room chair-height. Instruments are clustered on the steering wheel so there's no strain to see them. We invite you to match this car dollar for dollar against all others. Phone for a demonstration today.

The Beautiful Chrysler Silver Anniversary Model

SMART WINDSOR 4 DOOR SEDAN with Prestomatic Fluid Drive* Transmission—drive without shifting.

*900 Fluid Drive

The Greatest Car Value

Universal Auto Co.

206 E. Market St. Washington C. H., Ohio

Social Events

6 The Record-Herald Monday, June 20, 1949
Washington C. H., Ohio

Miss Marjorie Lu Swartz Is United In Marriage To Mr. Donald E. Belles

A beautiful afternoon wedding was solemnized on Sunday, June 19, as the hands of the clock approached three, at the First Christian Church, uniting in marriage Miss Marjorie Lu Swartz, daughter of Mrs. Esta Swartz to Mr. Donald E. Belles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Belles.

The altar of the church was banked with huckleberry foliage, with tall standards of white gladioli, pink and white carnations, madonna lilies and pink and white hydrangeas. Tall white tapers in seven branch candelabra, shed a soft glow, on the beautiful background, for the double ring ceremony, read by Rev. C. B. Tigner.

A half hour of nuptial music preceding the service was presented by Miss Rosemary Swartz, sister of the bride, as soloist and Miss Mary Sue Belles organist. Miss Swartz sang "The Lord's Prayer," "Through The Years," "Smiling Through," "O Promise Me," and "Because." Miss Belles' numbers included, "Ave Maria," "Always," "Marge," "Lost April" and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Edwin Swartz, was lovely in her wedding dress, fashioned with fitted basque of Chantilly lace, and a full chiffon skirt. The high neckline, featured a narrow round collar and lace covered buttons extended from the collar to the waistline. The sleeves were short and she wore matching lace mitts. Her fingertip veil of Chantilly lace was held in place with a tiara of lace, and she carried a white Bible topped with gardenias and stephanotis, with cascaded satin streamers.

Miss Christine Switzer was maid of honor for Miss Swartz, and Miss Alice Davis and Miss Mary Jane Hyer were bridesmaids.

Mr. Belles was attended by Mr. Wayne Spengler as best man and ushers seating the guests were Mr. Dwight Spengler and Mr. Coyt Stookey.

The attendants gowns were styled identically of taffeta, with fitted bodices and an off the shoulder effect outlined with a bertha, short puff sleeves, and full skirts, with modified bustle backs. Miss Switzer was in yellow, Miss Hyer in blue and Miss Davis in pink. Each wore matching Juliet caps, and all wore short white gloves. Their colonial nosegays were of sweet peas and roses in pastel shades with cascaded streamers.

Mrs. Swartz chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue sheer dress, accented with white accessories, and her corsage was of white gladioli. Mrs. Belles was wearing an Alice blue crepe dress, with white accessories and her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

A reception for 75 guests was held at the church immediately following the ceremony and the bride's table, adorned with a beautiful arrangement of pink and white sweet peas was centered with a three tier wedding cake, sentinelled with tall white tapers in single crystal holders. Mrs. James Williams, Miss Rosemary Swartz and Mrs. Edwin Swartz presided over the serving of the cake, and the silver service with the bride's attendants, and Mrs. Hazel McNorton as assisting hostesses.

Later when the bride and groom left on their wedding trip to Michigan, the bride was attired in a white linen suit, with all white accessories, and the gardenias from the wedding bouquet pinned at her shoulder. Upon their return they will reside at 422 East Market Street.

Mrs. Belles is a graduate of Washington C. H. High School in the class of '41 and has since held the position of secretary in the principal's office at the high school. Mr. Belles graduated from Wilkinsburg High School, Wilkinsburg, Pa., in the class of '42 and is associated with the Craig Brothers store here.

Entertains At Buffet Supper

Mrs. Grover Taylor entertained Sunday evening with a buffet supper complementing Mr. Taylor on "Father's Day." She included as guests, Mr. and Mrs. John Young, Mr. Ed Morgan of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence P. Hackett, daughters Kathryn and Mary Ann, Mrs. Will D. Chaney, Mrs. Frank O. Snyder and Evelyn and Barbara Cooper of this city.

Engagement Is Announced

Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Dett, 411 East Sixth Street are announcing the engagement of their daughter Mary, to Mr. Charles Barton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton of the Lewis Road. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. William Buchanan and daughter Lynette of Summit, New Jersey, were Friday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Buchanan and daughter Ellen. They were enroute to southern Ohio where they will vacation with relatives.

Beautiful Afternoon Wedding Unites Couple In Marriage

Mrs. Marion Wesley Smith

The Methodist Church in Jeffersonville was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Saturday, June 18 at four thirty o'clock when Miss Martha Pauline Straley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warner M. Straley of Jeffersonville, exchanged vows with Mr. Marion Wesley Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Smith of Spring Valley.

Rev. Clarence P. Miller officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony, before an altar banked with huckleberry foliage and fern forming a lovely background for the tall white baskets of white gladioli and madonna lilies softly lighter with white tapers in tall seven branch candelabra. A half hour of nuptial music preceding the ceremony was presented by Mrs. Orville L. Dolly, Jr., of Edgerton as vocalist, and Miss Marjorie Street, of Xenia as organist. Mrs. Dolly included in her numbers, "Through The Years," "I Love Thee," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." At the close of the ceremony, Miss Streets selections were, "Oh Promise Me," "I Love You Truly," "Always," "At Dawning," "Priest from the Suite of Gothic of Boelman" and the traditional wedding marches.

"Oh Perfect Love" was played softly during the ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her wedding gown of candlelight satin, fashioned with a sheer yoke, outlined with a bertha of Chantilly lace embroidered in seed pearls. The fitted bodice came to a point in front, joining the full skirt which fell in soft folds over old fashioned hoops, terminating in a sweeping cathedral train. Long sleeves ended in points over the hands. Her fingertip veil of sheer bridal illusion was loaned by Mrs.

green lace fans, topped with pink sweetheart roses. Little Miss Connie Jean Flint, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She was cunning in her gown, styled identically to the bride's and the satin in her dress was brought from Japan by her uncle Mr. Joseph Fisher. She scattered rose petals in the path of the bride from a tiny basket, which had been used at the wedding of the bride's mother. The groom was attended by Attorney George R. Smith of Jamestown a cousin, as best man.

The family pews were marked with fluffy white satin bows and ushers seating the guests were: Mr. Warren M. Straley of Dearborn, Michigan, brother of the bride, Dr. Harry Stoneburner of Spring Valley, and Mr. Orville L. Dolly Jr. of Edgerton. Mrs. Straley chose for her daughter's wedding, a dusty rose crepe dress with lace trim, with which she combined white accessories. The bridegroom's mother was wearing a pink crepe dress with silk fagoting trim. She also wore white accessories. Both mothers wore a single pink purple threaded orchid pinned at their shoulders. Immediately following the ceremony, a reception for over 200 guests was given by the bride's parents at the church. The lace covered bridal table, was beautiful with the three tiered wedding cake topped with the traditional bride and groom, surrounded at the base with artistic arrangements of gardenias and smilax. Tall white tapers in crystal candelabra were tied with white tulle bows. Seven close friends of the bride, Mrs. Dale Roush, Miss Fern Wilt, Miss Margaret Binegar, Miss Lois Ervin, Miss Melba Thomas, Miss Norma Jean Wilt and Miss Wiseman, all in pastel formals were hostesses. Later when the new Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for Chicago, Illinois, where they will reside, the bride was becomingly dressed in a toast summer suit with matching hat of Tuscan straw, and summer suede accessories. The orchid from her bridal bouquet was pinned at her shoulder. The bride is a graduate of Jeffersonville High School and Capital University, Columbus, where she was a member of the band symphony orchestra, chapel choir, Phi Beta and Kappa Sigma Theta sororities. Mr. Smith attended Wilmington College, where he became a member of Sigma Zeta fraternity, and later graduated from Capital University, Columbus, where he was tenor soloist in the chapel choir. He spent four years as a naval transport pilot in the rank of lieutenant. Mr. Smith is presently singing in the production "Wheels a' Rollin'" in the Railroad Fair, located in Chicago, Ill., on the shore of Lake Michigan.

He will return in the fall to take up his graduate work in voice at the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago. Guests attending the wedding and reception from out of town were those from Columbus, Springfield, Xenia, Tipp City, New Carlisle, Cedarville, Jamestown, Marion, Youngstown, Edgerton, Spring Valley, Canton, Milford, Sabina, Washington C. H., Berea, Yv., Indianapolis, Ind., Chicago, Ill., Detroit, Michigan, and Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Moyer returned Saturday from a week's

Evening Party Concludes Events Preceding Wedding

Miss Martha Straley, bride elect, and her bridal party were entertained at the home of Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Wiseman, in Jeffersonville following the wedding rehearsal Friday evening. A telegram was received by Miss Straley during the rehearsal dinner held at the Washington Hotel, inviting the party to the home of Miss Ruth Wiseman after the rehearsal.

The Wiseman home was lovely with various arrangements of roses in the living and dining rooms. After their arrival, the guests were invited to the candlelight dining room where a delicious dessert course was served buffet style from the dining table beautifully arrayed with a lace cloth, a water garden of roses and lighted candles.

The following guests attended: Mr. Smith and Miss Martha Straley the bride and groom elect, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Smith, daughter Louanne, Rev. C. P. Miller, Mr. Warner M. Straley, Jr., Miss Marjorie Street, Mr. and Mrs. Orville L. Dolly, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. James G. Tye, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Daehnke, Mr. Carl Grunewald and Miss Ruth Wiseman.

Mrs. Wiseman was assisted in serving by Mrs. Charles Seibert, Mrs. Forrest Ervin, Miss Lois Ervin and Miss Lois Wiseman.

Personals

Mr. Phil Davis and daughter, Miss Clara Davis had as "Father's Day" weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. William Davis, daughters Virginia, Rachel, Rhoda Ann and Marilyn of Marion, and their additional Sunday guests were Mrs. Walter Price of Dayton, Mrs. Edwin Craig, daughter Ann of Grove City, Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell, daughters Lucinda, and Sandra and sons Charles and John this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Moyer returned Saturday from a week's vacation spent at Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Mr. Robert A. Craig and Mr. John Mac Iver have returned from a business trip to New York City in the interest of the Craig Bros. Store.

Miss Gay Warner, granddaughter of Mrs. Gertrude Lampe, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Alan H. McClain in Charleston, West Virginia was guest soloist the past week on the Huntington Veteran's Hospital program. She is a voice pupil of Mrs. W. S. Paxson.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Riley and granddaughter, Linda Riley of Dennison, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Crumley, children Johnny and Sharon of Cincinnati and small Sandra Denton of this city were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Crumley Sr.

Mr. Robert Flee and Mr. Russell Flee of Cincinnati spent "Father's Day" with their father Mr. Harry Flee who is confined to his home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Payne of Columbus were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hoy O. Simons and their daughter Helen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Highley of Tampa, Florida are visiting for several days with Mr. Highley's brother, Mr. Clarence Highley and daughter, Miss Marcia Highley.

Mrs. J. C. Doneghy arrived Sunday from her home in St. Louis, Mo., for a visit of several weeks as the guest of Mrs. Stacy S. Boren.

Bradley and Larry Bennett, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Loren I. Bennett, are spending this week with Mrs. William T. Manuel in Dayton.

Mrs. Blanche Biehn and daughter, Mary Lou, were weekend guests of Mrs. Biehn's mother, Mrs. George Wolfe, and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Oborn in Kenton.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Strickland and Mrs. C. A. White of Milledgeville were among the guests attending the golden wedding celebration of the R. C. Tefft at their home in South Solon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mills and daughter, Hannah, of 117 East Vine Street, Mt. Vernon, were Father's Day guests of Mrs. Mills' father, Mr. Leo Landon.

Mrs. Urcel Hays motored to Dayton Saturday to attend the wedding of Miss Joan Janning to Mr. Samuel Armstrong. The ceremony was performed at 1:30 o'clock in the St. Albert The Great Church and the reception following was given by the bride's parents at their home in Dayton.

An excellent variation for plain muffins is to roll the tops in sugar and cinnamon that have been well mixed together as soon as you take them out of the oven.

Kool-Aid
MAKES 10 BIG, COLD Kool-Aid FLAVORS
DELICIOUS DRINKS

Don't let a little squirt bother you!

Let us DRAX your Sportswear!

DRAX is a new water-repellent that makes

SUITS, JACKETS, SPORT SHIRTS resist dirt and soil... shed water!

DRAXed sportswear stays clean longer, keeps its like-new look! DRAXing costs only a little extra — ask us for DRAX service!

DRAX
is made by the makers of JOHNSON'S WAX

Bob's Dry Cleaning
QUALITY SERVICE
Phone 2591

Free Pickup and Delivery Service

1/2 Mi. East on CCC Highway

Social Calendar

Mrs. Fathie Pearce
Society Editor
TELEPHONE 6291

MONDAY, June 20

Buckeye Garden Club with Mrs. Thane McCoy, 8 P. M.
Kings Daughters Class of First Christian Church, family picnic at home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sheridan, 6 P. M.

TUESDAY, June 21

Tuesday Kensington Club with Mrs. William C. Allen, 330 Hopkins St., 7:30 P. M.
Marilee Gards Club, with Mrs. Verne Wilson 2 P. M.

WEDNESDAY, June 22

Group 5 Westminster Guild of First Presbyterian Church, Church House, 7:30 P. M.
Group 4 Westminster Guild of First Presbyterian Church, Church House, 1:30 P. M.

Regular meeting of American Legion Auxiliary, Legion Hall, 8 P. M.

Nora Dye Council No. 182 D. of A. initiation at I. O. O. F. Hall, 8 P. M.

THURSDAY, June 23

Regular fortnightly luncheon bridge at Country Club, 1 P. M. Hostesses chairman Mrs. J. Roush Burton, Miss Opal Davids, Mrs. A. B. Grillo and Miss Marian Moore.

Womens Missionary Circle of First Baptist Church at Church Home, annual cradle roll party, 2 P. M.

Jeffersonville Progress Club breakfast, Mrs. M. G. Morris, 9 A. M.

FRIDAY, June 24

Wesleyan Service Guild, special open meeting at Grace Methodist Church, 8 P. M.

Sunnyside Willing Workers picnic, Mrs. Bernard Moots, 6:30 P. M.

more than a LOAN

ECONOMY
gives you 6 EXTRAS too

A sincere desire to make the loan, Respect for your confidence, Personal Consideration, Friendly attention, Understanding, Better service. Before you decide, investigate. No obligation. Loans in 1 trip — phone first.

DON GIBSON

Economy SAVINGS & LOAN CO.
CAPITAL FINANCE CORP.

111 N. Fayette
Phone 24371

TUNE IN Ronald Colman
on radio's most dramatic program
FAVORITE STORY

TUESDAY 9:30pm WHIO

Favorite Story of DR. LEE DeFOREST
Edgar Allan Poe's
"The Assignment"

THE DAYTON POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY

For your vacation—a wardrobe of Vision hosiery

At New Low Prices

The woman of Vision will include a complete wardrobe of Vision hosiery in her vacation plans! For daytime—playtime—evening wear: luxury sheers or sturdy hosiery—to fit every occasion and to fit you, too!

51 gauge, 15 denier $1.50
54 gauge, 15 denier $1.65
Sizes 8½ to 10½
Resort Colors

CRAIG'S

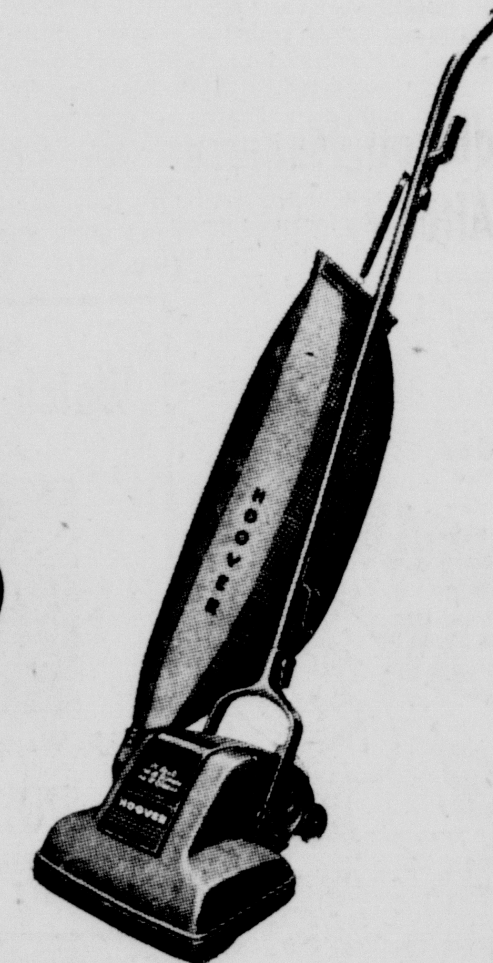

SPECIAL OFFER

For A Limited Time Only Model 115

HOOVER CLEANER
only $49.95

and Your Old Electric Cleaner

What a value. A Hoover cleaner with all the new improvement and sold on small monthly payments if you prefer. Easy-to-use dusting tools may be purchased with this model, too.

"So Easy to Use!"

Look at the price tag on this new Hoover. Then look what it does. Its the handiest, easiest-to-use cleaner you've ever had your hands on. Just 13 pounds light. But how it goes after that ground-in grit! Picks up the clinging litter, too.

A real Triple-Action Hoover . . . it's today's biggest buy in cleaners.

Phone 2544 for a free home demonstration — no obligation to buy. Charles W. Fox is our factory trained sales - service Hoover man.

CRAIG'S

Moose Conquers Good Hope As Cubs And Senators Lose

Sunday might have been a sunny day as far as the weather was concerned, but it was gloomy for all of the Fayette County teams except the Washington Moose, as both the Senators and Cubs lost in the South Central Ohio League and Good Hope was downed by the Moose in the South Western Loop.

Indians Back In AA Lead; Birds Win 2

(By the Associated Press)
After compiling a seven-game winning streak, Louisville was knocked off twice in a Sunday doubleheader by Indianapolis.

The twin killing enabled Indianapolis to regain first place in the American Association. St. Paul slipped to second place, 1/2 game behind, by splitting with Milwaukee.

Louisville, which climbed from the cellar into fifth place during a 10-day hot streak, dropped into sixth, 1 1/2 games behind Columbus.

Indianapolis took the opener 4-0 behind Jim Walsh's six-hit job—his first shutout in winning nine of 10 games. Four Indian double plays helped him over the rough spots.

The Tribe captured the nightcap 4-3 on Nanny Fernandez's single with the bases loaded in the seventh.

Milwaukee belted St. Paul 7-3 in the first game. Hank Perry's seven-hit winning chore was backed by a five-run fifth inning by the Brewers. The Saints copped the second 5-4 on Eric Tipton's homer in the last of the seventh.

Columbus downed Toledo 4-0 and 4-3, turning the Mud Hens' losing string to seven games. They now have dropped 19 of their last 25 contests.

Cotton Deal won the starter with a fine three hitter. Kurt Kreiger and Johnny Crimian combined to check the Mud Hens with seven blows in the afterpiece. Toledo broke a string of 25 scoreless innings with two runs in the third inning of the second game.

Fourth-place Minneapolis and Kansas City divided. The Millers grabbed the opener 10-7 as catcher Sal Yuars uncorked three doubles and a home run in four trips to drive in six runs and put a 15-hit attack.

The Blues won the nightcap 8-5 with Dave Madison holding Minneapolis to three hits after relieving Bob Keegan in the second inning. Madison was herded out of trouble in the fourth by a triple play. Bob Hoffman was on second and Ray Dandridge on first. First baseman Joe Collins speared Bama Rowell's sizzling liner, tagged out Dandridge and tossed to Jack Wallaesa on second to nail Hoffman.

Middlecoff, Mangrum Tie After 72 Holes

DETROIT, June 20—(AP)—Cary Middlecoff and Lloyd Mangrum, two of the nation's top pro golfers, headed homeward with $2,500 each today after playing all even in a unique sudden death tournament extra.

The two were tied at 273 at the end of the regulation 72 holes of the four-day motor city open golf competition yesterday.

Then they set out on the sudden death playoff that went 11 thrilling holes before it was called by mutual agreement with the two splitting the championship and the $2,600 and $1,900 first and second prize money.

Local golfing authorities said it was the first such overtime match in a PGA tournament here and the first time there had been co-champions in any PGA bigtime event.

Mangrum declared "this playoff takes the cake," and said he could not recall a similar finish.

The sudden death playoff idea was worked out by the tournament sponsors because Ben Hogan and E. J. Dutch Harrison tied in the regular 72-hole tournament play last year, and no one was anxious to hold an 18-hole like the one that gave Hogan last year's crown.

Middlecoff, the Memphis, Tenn., dentist who won the national open title at Chicago last week, fired a final round of 69—two under par—yesterday to get his 273 total.

Mangrum, the Niles, Ill., star had started his last regular round with a 54-hole total of 204—the same as Middlecoff's score.

Playing at Wilson Field, the Moose and Good Hope went 16 innings, before the home team could win; 7-6.

Good Hope started on the winning side in the fifth inning after both teams had tallied once in the fourth. In the seventh, Good Hope crossed the plate twice more, but the Moose tallied once in the seventh and twice in the eighth to tie the game up.

Both teams scored in the thirteenth and fifteenth, before the Moose tallied in the 16th on a walk and a hit by Satchell.

Wackman Stars
Although the losing pitcher, Alex Wackman, hurler for the Good Hope squad, was one of the stars as he went the entire distance and struck out 21 batters while walking five. Tom Smalley took Wackman out to rest at one time as the left hander went to first, but when his relief pitchers could not hold the Moose players, Wackman was called back to the mound.

The Moose used three pitchers, Bob and Ken Dawes and Sollors, with Sollors coming into the game in the 13th, to win the tilt. Bob Dawes struck out three in the first five innings while walking one. Ken Dawes struck out five in seven innings and Sollors struck out two and walked one in finishing the game.

The Moose committed four misplays while Good Hope made five errors.

At the bat, Reno hit a home run for the winners, while Bentley hit a four-bagger for the losers.

Three players were injured before the contest was concluded as V. Palmer tore a ligament going after a grounder in the fifth inning for the losers and Ken Dawes and Satchell were injured for the winners. Dawes was hurt when he crashed into Coleman to cross the plate as the Good Hope catcher blocked the base path. Satchell was hurt when he raced back into right field to make a stab at a Texas leaguer and crashed into G. Shaw.

MOOSE
Steele, 1b-If 6 2 1
Satchell, 2b 7 0 1
Sollors, ss-p 5 1 2
C. Dawes, 3b 6 1 1
Reno, If-ss 6 1 2
E. Shaw, 3b 5 2 2
D. Shaw, rf 3 0 0
aG. Shaw, cf 3 0 0
bHaffield, rf 2 0 1
Roberts, c 1 0 0
C. Pierce, lf 1 0 0
R. Dawes, p 2 0 0
K. Dawes, p-rf 5 1 0
TOTALS 56 7 10

GOOD HOPE
V. Palmer, 3b 5 0 1
E. Wiscup, 3b 5 0 1
B. Wiscup, lf 7 1 1
J. Dawes, ss 8 0 1
C. Palmer, rf 8 0 1
G. DeWees, lf 8 1 3
D. Shaw, cf 0 0 0
Bentley, 2b 4 1 3
Coleman, c 6 1 3
Wackman, p 6 1 3
TOTALS 65 6 16

aG. Shaw struckout for D. Dawes, 6th. cHaffield struck out for G. Shaw, 13th. cPierce caught in 6th.

Senators Lose
In the SCO League, the Washington Senators dropped to a three-way tie for first place as they went to Lancaster and were downed by the home team; 2-1.

In a pitcher's battle which saw Woolard, for the Glassmen, and Carl Graves, for the Senators, both force their opponents to scatter their hits, Woolard gave up seven safeties while Graves allowed eight.

The Senators took an early lead in the second inning, but could not cross the plate again. After tying the score in the fourth, the home team went on to win with another run in the fifth.

The only extra-base blow hit in the game was a double by Ankrom for the losers. Noon got two singles out of four times at bat for the losers, while Thomas did the same for the winners.

Lancaster
Wheaton, ss 4 0 1
Meadows, 2b 4 0 1
Colenberger, lf 4 0 1
Daubenmire, rf 4 0 1
Poling, cf 4 0 1
Roof, 1b 2 0 1
Woolard, p 2 0 1
TOTALS 31 2 8

Washington C. H.
Tracy, cf 4 0 1
C. Davis, ss 4 0 1
Ankrom, 3b 4 0 1
Noon, 1b 4 0 1
Beicher, 2b 4 0 1
Kirtz, c 4 0 0
Harner, rf 4 0 0
D. Graves, lf 2 0 0
C. Graves, p 2 0 0
H. Gulick (R), If 1 0 0
TOTALS 35 1 7

Two base hits—Ankrom. Winning pitcher—Woolard. Losing pitcher—Graves.

Wash. 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 7 0
Lancaster 0 0 0 1 1 0 0 x 2 8 0

Cubs Defeated
While the Senators dropped in to a tie with Lancaster, the Jeffersonville Cubs lost to Chillicothe to allow the visitors to climb into

The first use of American railroads to communicate news was in 1838 when copies of a presidential speech were sent from Washington to Baltimore in one hour and 13 minutes.

Some 'Jumpers' Not Yet Settled

Only Two Score Balk at Old Jobs

NEW YORK, June 20—(AP)—Two weeks after Commissioner A. B. Chandler's edict forgiving all Mexican League jumpers, only two of the score of reinstated players have reclaimed their old baseball jobs in the major.

They are Lou Klein, St. Louis Cardinal infielder who is filling in for the aching-back Marty Marion at shortstop, and George Hausmann, who has taken over second base for the New York Giants.

A half dozen other athletes granted amnesty expect to return to organized baseball in the next few days.

The best appear temporarily stymied—either they don't want to come back or there's no "welcome" mat out for them.

Mickey Owen, the one-time Brooklyn catcher who spearheaded the movement to have the five-year ban lifted, said he planned to join the Dodgers tomorrow in Cincinnati.

Also headed for the Dodgers is Luis Olmo, who has been playing outfield for the Pastora Club in Venezuela.

In Canada, two former "outlaw" pitchers—Fred Martin and Harry Feldman—announced they would return to U. S. baseball jobs shortly.

Martin's old mound mate, Max Lanier, still is talking. He says he is not willing to leave his Quebec provincial league post for the $11,500 salary and "earn-your-spurs" proposition offered by the Cardinals.

Martin and Lanier have $2,500,000 in damage suits pending against organized baseball.

The other player testing baseball's right to banish employees—former New York Giant outfielder Danny Gardella—has announced he doesn't want to return. He's also playing semi-pro ball in Canada.

Jeffersonville
Stewart, ss 5 1 2
Prather, 3b 6 1 1
Bull, c 6 1 1
Amos, 2b 6 0 2
Sprinkle, cf 6 2 1
Stevens, lf 6 2 1
Helsinger, 1b 5 0 1
Evans, rf 4 2 0
Kleever, 2b 4 2 0
Stockwell, p 4 0 0
Haddix (2), p 4 0 0
Moon (8), rf 2 0 0
TOTALS 47 7 16

Chillicothe
Overly, 3b 6 2 4
Stout, cf 6 0 1
Stout, lf 6 0 1
Cox, 1b 6 2 3
Doles, ss 6 1 4
Cripp, 1b 4 1 3
Malone, p 3 0 0
Braun (9), p 1 0 0
Brown (10), p 1 0 0
TOTALS 51 9 19

Two base hits—Bull, 2. Stevens, Cripp. Three base hits—Stout, Overly. Struck out by Haddix 13; Malone 1. Brown 1.

Winning pitcher—Brown. Losing pitcher—Haddix.

Chilli. 2 0 1 1 0 0 2 1 0 0 2 9 19 1
Jeff. 2 0 0 0 1 0 1 1 2 0 0 7 16 0

Team STANDINGS W L Pct.
Washington C. H. 4 2 .667
Lancaster 4 2 .667
Jeffersonville 3 3 .500
Grove City 3 3 .500
Wilmington 0 3 .000

Five Teams Bunched In Best-Ball Tourney

The team captained by Kenneth Harley today held the honors after Sunday's five-man-best-ball golf tournament at the Country Club.

The tourney was originally rigged for four-man teams, but when last minute complications left two of the four-man entries short-handed, Tony Capuana, the club pro, rearranged play on the basis of five-man teams.

Thus, five teams instead of the original seven teed off at about 2 P. M., for the 18-hole grind under the blazing sun and in the sultry atmosphere.

Scores were not as good as Capuana had expected, the pro said as he went over the tally sheet. He blamed the heat for the increases nearly all the way down the line.

"A 200-yard drive was a 200-yard drive," he said after explaining that the rolls stretched out many tee shots to unprecedented lengths during the pre-rain period when the fairways were as hard as a pavement.

"The heat took a lot out of some of the boys," Capuana added. "Some of them were really dragging at the end of 18 holes."

Dan O'Brien, a fiery golfer who is hotter than a firecracker when he is hot, turned in by far the best score—a neat 75 on rounds of 39 and a par 36.

Bill Himmelpach was five strokes behind with 42-38 for a total of 80. Bill also won the

The word "artillery" was first used for all engines used to discharge missiles, but in more recent times it has been used only for firearms of long range capable of discharging a bursting projectile.

Washington C. H.
Tracy, cf 4 0 1
C. Davis, ss 4 0 1
Ankrom, 3b 4 0 1
Noon, 1b 4 0 1
Beicher, 2b 4 0 1
Kirtz, c 4 0 0
Harner, rf 4 0 0
D. Graves, lf 2 0 0
C. Graves, p 2 0 0
H. Gulick (R), If 1 0 0
TOTALS 35 1 7

Two base hits—Ankrom. Winning pitcher—Woolard. Losing pitcher—Graves.

Wash. 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 7 0
Lancaster 0 0 0 1 1 0 0 x 2 8 0

Cubs Defeated
While the Senators dropped in to a tie with Lancaster, the Jeffersonville Cubs lost to Chillicothe to allow the visitors to climb into

Reds Lose Two Games; Bob Feller in Old Form

By JOE REICHLER
(By the Associated Press)

The Cincinnati Reds came up with a couple of ragged plays a field yesterday and it cost them a Crosley Field doubleheader with the husling Boston Braves.

A poor fielding play and an error paved the way for three Boston Braves runs in the sixth inning of the opener and the Braves went on to win, 5-2. The deciding marker in the nightcap came home on a wild pitch to give the Braves a 3-2 decision.

The Rhinelanders gave the Braves a battle in yesterday's first game until the final sixth. Singles by shortstop Alvin Dark and pitcher Warren Spahn, a round a strikeout, gave the Braves runners on first and third in that frame.

Eddie Stanky, Braves second sacker, then hit a grounder to first baseman Ted Kuszewski. Big Ted fielded the ball near the bag and needed only to take a step to retire Stanky before throwing to the plate to catch Dark.

But Kuszewski heaved the ball home immediately and Dark, late in getting tatted from third, was trapped by catcher Walker Cooper and third baseman Grady Hatton. In the run-down, however, Cooper threw over Hatton's head and Dark scored.

Center fielder Pete Reiser was passed intentionally, loading the bases, and Bob Elliott, the Braves' third baseman, promptly lined out a two-run single, sending the game beyond recall.

In the second game, Johnny Antonelli, Boston's $75,000 bonus player, outdueled four Red Sox hurlers—Johnny Vander Meer, Herm Wehmeier, Bud Lively and Ewell Blackwell—to notch his third victory as against two defeats.

With the score deadlocked 2-2, Stanky drew a walk to start the fourth. First sacker Elbie Fletcher singled him around to third and Wehmeier then uncorked a wild pitch to let in the winning run.

Feller Comes Back
Bob Feller is up to his old tricks again—engaging in his favorite pastime of making the baseball experts eat their words.

It was only a couple of days ago the experts predicted, for the empty-umpth time, that the first-while great Cleveland pitcher was through—finished as a winning hurler. And as he did on all previous occasions, the 30-year-old right-hander has proved them wrong.

He stilled them yesterday with a brilliant 11-inning pitching performance as the Indians defeated the New York Yankees, 4-2. Feller allowed six hits, only one in the last seven innings.

The Van Meter, la. fireballer, who won 122 games in five straight complete seasons for the Indians, reached the nadir of his pitching fortunes just eight days ago. On June 11, the Yankees handed him the most humiliating defeat of his career, shelling him from the mound in the first inning.

That was the signal for many of the scribes to start writing Feller's baseball obituary. They were forced to hold up when Bob came back three days later to beat the Red Sox in Boston with a six-hit effort.

Feller's victory yesterday was a very important one for the fourth place Indians. It gave them the series from the league leaders -- two games to one -- and moved them within five and a half games from the top. They've now won seven of their last eight and trail the third place Philadelphia Athletics by only one game.

Homer Does It
A home run with one on by first baseman Mickey Vernon broke up the game in the 11th. Joe Page, who had replaced starter Allie

K. Harley 38 46 84
O. D. Farquhar 45 47 92
Stan Hagerty 46 46 92
Dan O'Brien 39 36 75
Darrell Thornton 44 44 88

Bill McLean 42 42 84
Bud Reno 36 45 83
Dink Dellinger 43 42 85
Jim Shaw 48 37 85

Ronnie Cornwell 45 37 82
Paul Gessner 45 47 92
Dink Dellinger 43 42 85
Joe Waddle 47 44 91
Glen Roseboom 44 42 86

Bill Himmelpach 42 38 80
Austin Wise 45 43 88
Mel Shaw 45 45 90
Harold Miller 47 43 90
Gene Stanforth 43 41 84

Dr. Bob Hagerty 40 43 83
Bob Allen 41 42 83
W. E. Kennedy 49 49 98
Don Brandenburg 43 44 87
Dr. L. L. Humphrey 47 48 95

Ezz Hits Harder than Jersey Says Man Who's Taken Both

MOMENCE, Ill., June 20—(AP)—Who hits harder — Ezzard Charles or Jersey Joe Walcott? If you take the word of Gene Jones, promising young Camden, N. J., heavyweight, who has sparred with both men, the answer is Charles.

Of course, there's a catch. Jones is currently employed by Charles' handlers to help him get ready for Wednesday night's N.B.A.-sanctioned world heavyweight title bout at Chicago's Comiskey Park.

Jones boxed with Walcott—a fellow townsman from Camden—when Jersey Joe was getting ready for Joey Maxim at Los Angeles, June 1947. He helped condition Joe for his December, 1947 fight with Joe Louis. He also boxed with him several times in the gym at home.

"You stand back and let Walcott do what he wants and he'll make you look silly," said Jones. "Walcott never hurt me but Charles did the first couple of days I was in camp," he continued. "Ezzy has a few tricks that are cute until you figure them out. He can hurt you before you find the answer. He punches harder than Walcott."

"I don't look for any knockout, unless in the late rounds. Walcott won't trade punches with you. Despite the weight, I think Charles will wear him down, maybe with those body punches."

Charles, the 27-year-old Cincinnati boy, was to finish his pre-fight boxing today. Walcott ended heavy work yesterday at the Peaceful Valley Country Club.

The International Boxing Club reported a rising advance sale with great interest from fans in surrounding cities and villages. The gate may be surprisingly large for a bout that did not appear to have crowd appeal when it was first made. The promoters claim they have already taken in $250,000.

Grand Circuit Races Shift To New York

WESTBURY, N. Y., June 20—(AP)—The grand circuit, harness racing's major league, comes to Roosevelt Raceway tonight for the first two weeks of an eight-week swing around eastern tracks.

More than $200,000 in purses will be the lure for the nation's top sulky drivers and horses during the 12-nights of the grand circuit at Roosevelt's half-mile track.

Top attractions are the Village Farm and Abbeduto stakes, worth a total of $45,000. The $15,000 Village Farm stake for two-year-old pacers will be held June 27, with the $10,000 three-year-old division of the same stake June 28.

K. D. Owen's Irish Hal, a bay colt which has won the first two starts of his career, heads the two-year-old pacers for the village farm. The standout for the Village Farm three-year-old section is Good Time, owned by W. H. Cane, head man of the Hambletonian trotting classic each year at Goshen, N. Y.

Baseball Standings
AMERICAN LEAGUE
Club W L Pct.
New York 36 21 .632
Detroit 33 24 .579
Cleveland 32 26 .552
Philadelphia 29 25 .537
Boston 29 27 .518
Washington 28 28 .500
Chicago 23 36 .390
St. Louis 17 40 .298

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Club W L Pct.
Brooklyn 35 23 .603
Cleveland 32 26 .552
Boston 33 26 .559
Philadelphia 33 27 .550
New York 29 27 .518
Cincinnati 24 33 .421
Pittsburgh 23 34 .404
Chicago 20 37 .351

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
Club W L Pct.
Indianapolis 38 24 .613
St. Paul 38 24 .607
Milwaukee 35 25 .583
Minneapolis 31 30 .508
Columbus 28 32 .467
Louisville 28 35 .444
Kansas City 26 37 .413
Toledo 21 37 .362

Baseball Results
(By the Associated Press)
NATIONAL LEAGUE
Boston, 5-3; Cincinnati, 2-2.
St. Louis, 6; Philadelphia, 5.
Chicago, 8; Brooklyn, 2.
Pittsburgh, 9; New York, 4.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Cleveland, 4; New York, 2.
Detroit, 9-7; Washington, 6-0.
Philadelphia, 8-3; St. Louis, 3-7.
Boston, 9; Chicago, 2.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
Columbus, 4-4; Toledo, 6-2.
Indianapolis, 4-4; Louisville, 0-3.
Milwaukee, 7-4; St. Paul, 3-5.
Minneapolis, 10-5; Kansas City, 7-8.

Dipple, of Ohio U., lost to Joan Koch and Barbara Scarlett of Vassar College, 6-0, 6-1.

Miss Scarlett also took the women's title by scoring a gold upset over Mrs. Adrienne Goldberg Ayares of Goucher College, 8-6, 6-1.

College Champion To Turn Golf Pro
OKLAHOMA CITY, June 20—(AP)—The youngest professional in the history of American women's golf was welcomed into the field for the western open tournament here today.

Marilynn Smith, 20-year-old University of Kansas sophomore, said she had agreed to terms with A. G. Spalding Bros., and would sign a contract July 1.

The youthful links star won the national intercollegiate tournament at Columbus, O., the past week, defeating Grace Lenczyk, 3-2.

Miss Smith, rated a top contender in the western which opened today, said she would travel to various colleges and country clubs for exhibitions and clinics.

Ohio U. Coeds Lose Eastern Tennis Meet
MONTCLAIR, N. J., June 20—(AP)—Two Ohio University co-eds lost yesterday in the doubles finals of the 27th annual eastern intercollegiate tennis tournament. Ruth Haberacher and Marilyn

Take it from me... you're safe behind Weather-Seal

COMBINATION WINDOWS AND SCREENS

This Summer, keep your home free of pesky insects by installing famed Weather-Seal combination windows and screens. They'll give you cool, rain-free, bug-free ventilation all Summer long... snug, draft-free comfort come Winter. Guaranteed in writing for life and custom-built for secure fit, Weather-Seals can be purchased on easy pay terms.

Weather-Seal
INTERCHANGEABLE WINTER WINDOWS AND SUMMER SCREENS
146 N. Fayette
"Member of Chamber of Commerce"

Call 26651

Sports

The Record-Herald Monday, June 20, 1949 7
Washington C. H., Ohio

Ezz Hits Harder than Jersey Says Man Who's Taken Both

MOMENCE, Ill., June 20—(AP)—Who hits harder — Ezzard Charles or Jersey Joe Walcott? If you take the word of Gene Jones, promising young Camden, N. J., heavyweight, who has sparred with both men, the answer is Charles.

Of course, there's a catch. Jones is currently employed by Charles' handlers to help him get ready for Wednesday night's N.B.A.-sanctioned world heavyweight title bout at Chicago's Comiskey Park.

Jones boxed with Walcott—a fellow townsman from Camden—when Jersey Joe was getting ready for Joey Maxim at Los Angeles, June 1947. He helped condition Joe for his December, 1947 fight with Joe Louis. He also boxed with him several times in the gym at home.

"You stand back and let Walcott do what he wants and he'll make you look silly," said Jones. "Walcott never hurt me but Charles did the first couple of days I was in camp," he continued. "Ezzy has a few tricks that are cute until you figure them out. He can hurt you before you find the answer. He punches harder than Walcott."

"I don't look for any knockout, unless in the late rounds. Walcott won't trade punches with you. Despite the weight, I think Charles will wear him down, maybe with those body punches."

Charles, the 27-year-old Cincinnati boy, was to finish his pre-fight boxing today. Walcott ended heavy work yesterday at the Peaceful Valley Country Club.

The International Boxing Club reported a rising advance sale with great interest from fans in surrounding cities and villages. The gate may be surprisingly large for a bout that did not appear to have crowd appeal when it was first made. The promoters claim they have already taken in $250,000.

Grand Circuit Races Shift To New York

WESTBURY, N. Y., June 20—(AP)—The grand circuit, harness racing's major league, comes to Roosevelt Raceway tonight for the first two weeks of an eight-week swing around eastern tracks.

More than $200,000 in purses will be the lure for the nation's top sulky drivers and horses during the 12-nights of the grand circuit at Roosevelt's half-mile track.

Top attractions are the Village Farm and Abbeduto stakes, worth a total of $45,000. The $15,000 Village Farm stake for two-year-old pacers will be held June 27, with the $10,000 three-year-old division of the same stake June 28.

K. D. Owen's Irish Hal, a bay colt which has won the first two starts of his career, heads the two-year-old pacers for the village farm. The standout for the Village Farm three-year-old section is Good Time, owned by W. H. Cane, head man of the Hambletonian trotting classic each year at Goshen, N. Y.

Baseball Standings
AMERICAN LEAGUE
Club W L Pct.
New York 36 21 .632
Detroit 33 24 .579
Cleveland 32 26 .552
Philadelphia 29 25 .537
Boston 29 27 .518
Washington 28 28 .500
Chicago 23 36 .390
St. Louis 17 40 .298

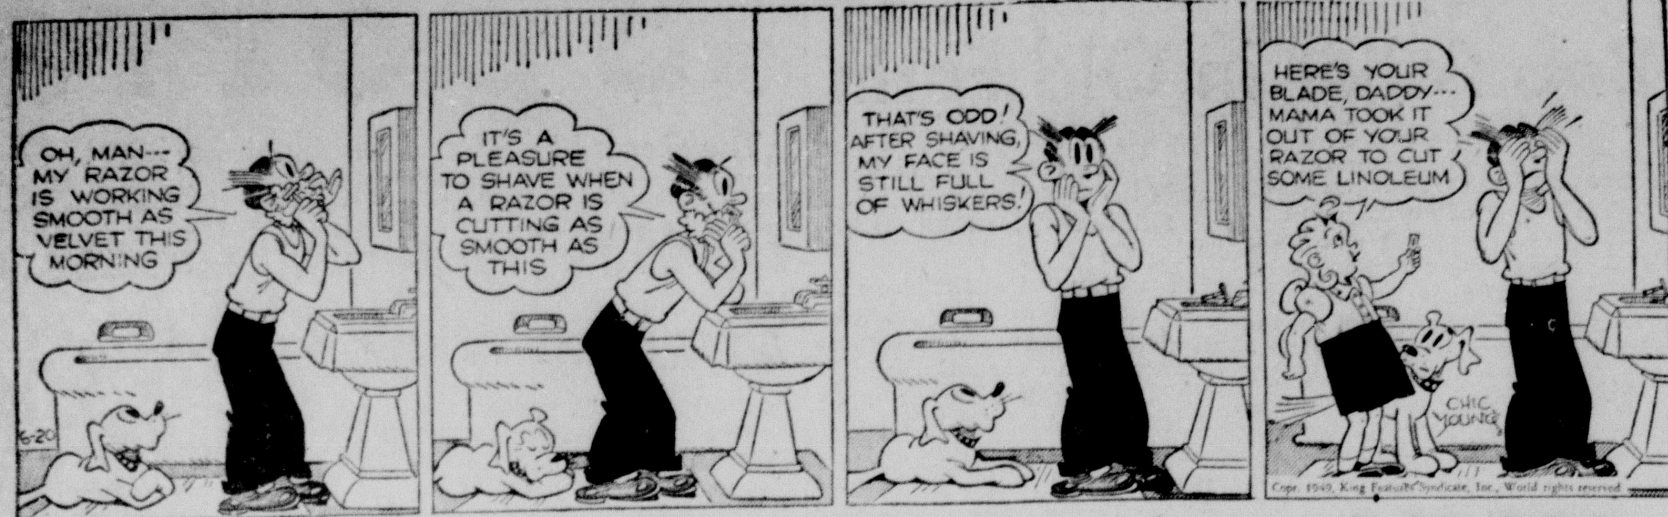

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Club W L Pct.
Brooklyn 35 23 .603
Cleveland 32 26 .552
Boston 33 26 .559
Philadelphia 33 27 .550
New York 29 27 .518
Cincinnati 24 33 .421
Pittsburgh 23 34 .404
Chicago 20 37 .351

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
Club W L Pct.
Indianapolis 38 24 .613
St. Paul 38 24 .607
Milwaukee 35 25 .583
Minneapolis 31 30 .508
Columbus 28 32 .467
Louisville 28 35 .444
Kansas City 26 37 .413
Toledo 21 37 .362

Baseball Results
(By the Associated Press)
NATIONAL LEAGUE
Boston, 5-3; Cincinnati, 2-2.
St. Louis, 6; Philadelphia, 5.
Chicago, 8; Brooklyn, 2.
Pittsburgh, 9; New York, 4.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Cleveland,

Blondie

By Chic Young

Barney Google and Snuffy Smith

By Billy DeBeck

Erta Kett

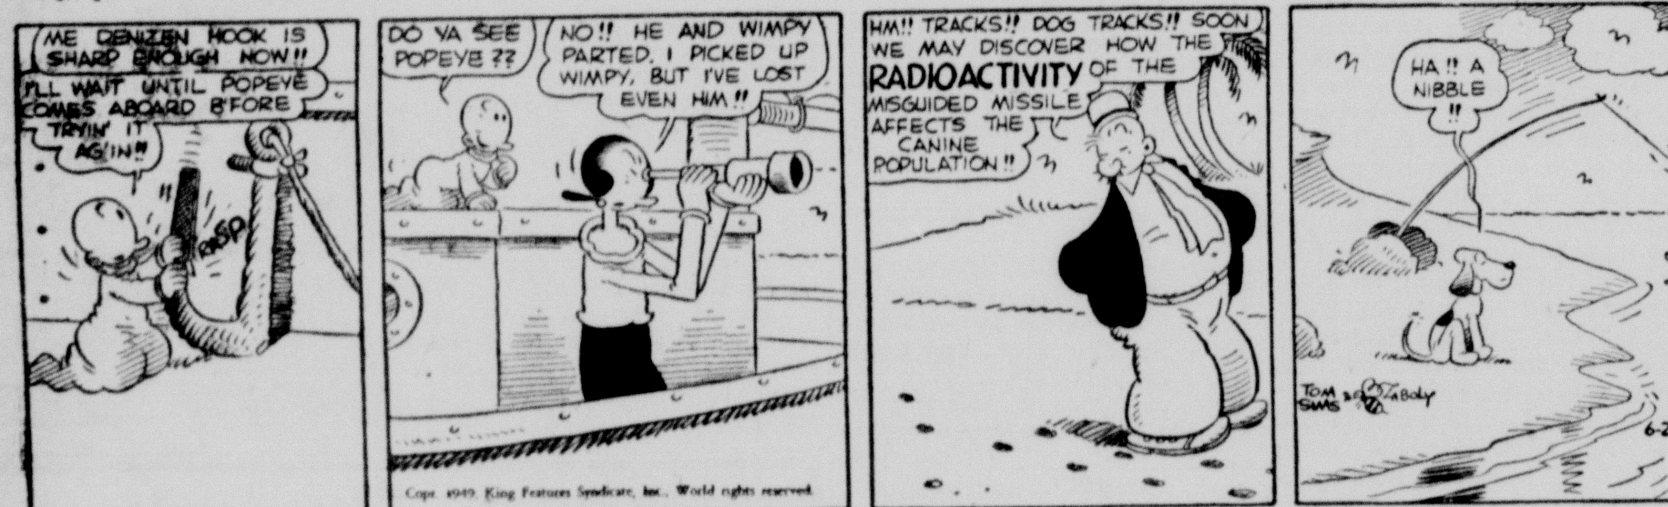

By Paul Robinson

Brick Bradford

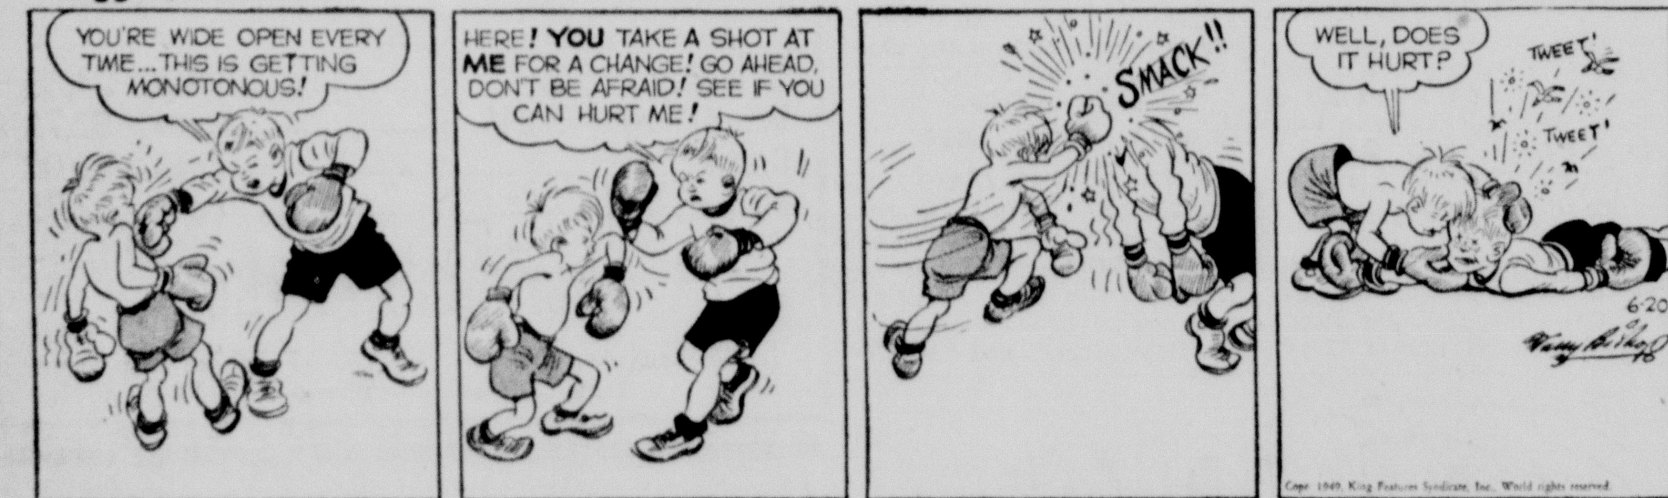

By William Ritt and Clarence Gray

Popeye

Muggs McGinnis

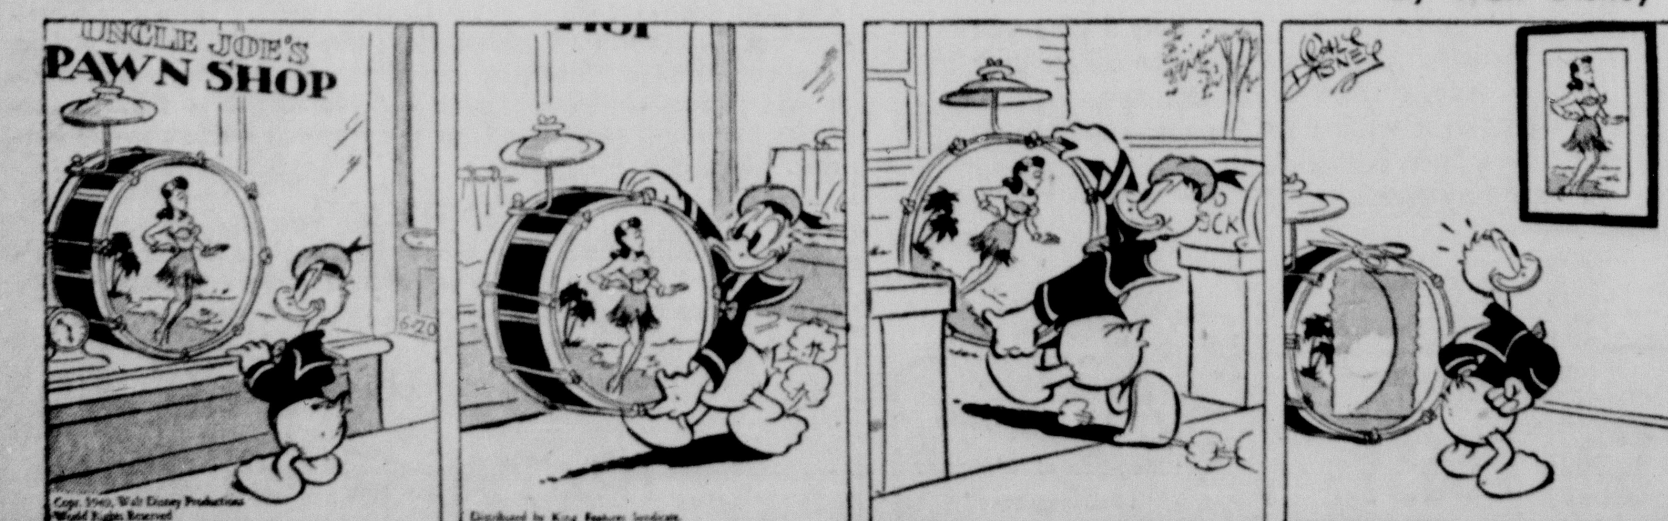

By Wally Bishop

Little Annie Rooney

By Brandon Walsh

Donald Duck

By Walt Disney

Germans Lead Moral Attack On Communism

Movement Backed By 2,000 Pilgrims Now in Switzerland

BY LYNN HEINZLERLING
CAUX-SUR-MONTREUX, Switzerland, June 20—(P)—Two thousand Germans will make their way to this breath-taking mountain resort this summer to meet Dr. Frank N. D. Buchman, 71-year-old apostle of moral rearmament and "inspired democracy."

Although Dr. Buchman never attacks Communism frontally in his pronouncements, he makes it clear that these German pilgrims—ranging from minister presidents to miners—are expected to return to Germany with "superior ideology." Germany is the focal point of moral rearmament's program this year.

"Germany is one of the nations that is going to teach the world," Dr. Buchman said in an interview. "Moral rearmament is the answer in Germany."

Asked why he rarely mentions Communism in his statements although the whole program of MRA is designed to "give the answer to both Fascism and Communism," Dr. Buchman said: "You don't have to talk about Communism. You've got something better. And it works."

Dr. Buchman, the founder of the Oxford group which later adopted the name Moral Rearmament, speaks always in short, sharp sentences. He is friendly and sociable. While he admits that he can not now keep up with all the developments in his movement personally, he appears to have an unfailing memory for the men and women who trek here annually to hear his message repeated day after day.

Change Emphasized
To the casual visitor, some of the phrases which sound and re-sound in the large ballroom of the movement's hotel headquarters here may sound grandiose and puzzling.

Dr. Buchman is apt to talk about "God-control." The word "change" is one of the most frequently used—"economic change. Social change. National change." All based on personal change. A book of Dr. Buchman's messages is entitled "Remaking The World."

But the Palatial Hotel which serves as headquarters is bursting with 1,000 visitors. Cabinet ministers, diplomats, industrialists and ordinary workmen come here to listen to the old message that the course of a nation can be changed if enough of its citizens change their moral outlook on life.

Moral rearmament, said Dr. Buchman, "is the inspired living that makes nations think and live." In a broadside movement among the workers of the Ruhr, the industrialists and the politicians of Germany, Dr. Buchman hopes that the new Germany will be molded along the lines of this "inspired democracy." The 2,000 Germans coming here this summer will lead "task forces" inside Germany after undergoing intensive training here.

Former Hitlerite
One of Dr. Buchman's disciples is Peter Petersen, 22, of Hamburg. Petersen was a member of the Hitler youth and spent four years in a Nazi school intended to make him a political leader. He fought on the western front in the Elite "Gross Deutschland" division. At the end of the war, he still believed, he said, that "Hitler was sent by God to bring boys to their true destiny."

In 1947, he met one of Dr. Buchman's followers and accepted an invitation to visit Caux. This, he said, was "a terrific experience" and "brought me into fellowship with people of the whole world."

Petersen is now one of the movement's key organizers in German universities.

The expected visitors from Germany include the minister presidents of three western zone governments—Dr. Hans Ehard of Bavaria, Karl Arnold of North Rhine-Westphalia and Dr. Gebhard Mueller of Wuertemberg—Hohenzollern. Others who have accepted invitations are Dr. Konrad Adenauer, president of the Bonn parliamentary council, Dr. Hermann Puender, chairman of

THE VALLEY OF VANISHING RIDERS

Copyright, 1946, by Dodd, Mead & Company
Distributed by King Features Syndicate

NORMAN A. FOX

CHAPTER FORTY-ONE

OVER Lia's dark head, Ives said, "Hallday, there's an old rustling charge against me down in the Powder River country. It sent me heading for Forlori Valley years ago. But I stopped at Seton Alessandro's door on the way, and he made me a proposition to work for him. That was the beginning. But do you suppose that blanket pardon of the governor's covers me, too?"

Chip smiled. "We made a pair of partners yesterday, Ives," he said. "Whatever you did in the past, I reckon you've earned a pardon twice over. And if that paper I packed doesn't cover you, we'll get a special one that will, Sam or me could likely talk the governor out of the shirt off his back right now."

Ives said, "Do you hear that, Lia? I've got a clean name to give you."

She said, "But I've no name at all! Was Alessandro telling the truth the other night when he spoke of India? Look at this, Jack: it's a tin-type that fell out of Fogg's pocket as he writhed upon the floor. It's a picture of me, Jack—only it isn't. How do you suppose Fogg came to have it? Perhaps it would have been better if he or Alessandro had lived to answer for this picture."

She revealed the tin-type which she'd held clutched in her hand, and Rayburn took it from her, almost reverently, and cupped it in his own hand. "I can answer for this picture," he said. "It is of Donna Conchita y Brenandano, most beautiful of a family that was famed for the beauty of its women and the handsomeness of its men. Pure Castilian she was, and the toast of Mexico City a score of years and more ago."

"Alessandro's wife?" Chip asked, peering over Rayburn's shoulder. "No, she was a distant cousin of Alessandro's though," Rayburn said. "He was only part Spanish, you know. Friends, this woman was my wife. Your mother, Hope; and yours, too, Lia. You see, you girls are sisters."

"Things," opined Singin' Sam McAllister, "are crowdin' a mite too fast for me!"

Night had come again to Tumblerock, and six people were gathered in the study of Seton Alessandro's town house. This was Lia's house now; an examination of Jasper Fogg's office had revealed a will whereby Alessandro had bequeathed his entire holdings to the girl who'd borne his name. And thus Chip Hallday, Singin' Sam McAllister, Colorado Jack Ives, Hope, and Clark Rayburn sat now as Lia's guests.

They had much to talk about, this group; they had pieced together their separate experiences of the last few days, and from the fragments they had constructed a coherent whole. Thus Chip had learned, among other things, how the Forlorners had hanged a hundred steers up into the pass and sent them stampeding through, sweeping Alessandro's posted men before them. Those same steers had been urged on southward at a hard run, and there'd been no man to bar the way; for Alessandro's crew had been closing in on the ranch and the quarry they'd cornered. And thus had the Forlorners been in on the fighting finish.

Below this house, down along the main street of the town, those same Forlorners filled the saloons, the men of the valley celebrating the freedom that had been bestowed upon them by Rayburn's formal announcement of the governor's pardon a few hours before. Rumor had it that Sheriff Frank Busby and his deputies had lined out of town earlier, and the betting ran that the lawmen who'd played Alessandro's game would never show themselves in the Tumblerocks again. The jail was filled to bursting with Alessandro's captured crew, and Singin' Sam had elected himself temporary sheriff.

"Ain't a man in the Tumblerocks knows more about the inside of that caboose than me," he declared when stating his qualifications.

But now there was one last tale to be told, a page from Clark Rayburn's past, and the others had waited patiently for the telling. An old wine had mellowed Rayburn, a new contentment had taken the shadows from his eyes, and he smiled upon his two daughters who were seated side by side on a divan, the one so blonde, the other dark and exotic.

"I met your mother in Mexico City, some twenty-five years ago," he said. "I was a professional gambler then, a man who'd done a lot of roving. But I knew I'd found what I'd been seeking when I saw her, and I began courting her at once. I had rivals, of course—many of them—and one was Seton Alessandro, whose relationship to the Brenandanos was very distant."

"Your mother chose me. Don't ask me why; I'll always marvel that she married a gringo gambler who had nothing to offer her but promises when she might have had the pick of the world. We came to the States afterwards, and at last to Grasshopper Gulch where there was news of a gold strike. By then the two of you had been born; you first, Hope, and Lia two years later."

"And Alessandro was in Grasshopper Gulch," Singin' Sam interjected, remembering the tale Gopher Joe Gravely had told Ute Kincaide.

and electrical installations, guests at this huge hotel do all the work. On a visit to the kitchen, I found John Pribram, a former GI from Washington D. C., washing dishes with Walthe Klippel, trade union secretary from Essen, Eugene Von Teuber, a former Czech baron, was drying the silver and Lady Sinha of India was helping prepare the next meal.

Presbyterian Meeting Planned for Next Week

WOOSTER, June 20—(P)—The 68th annual Ohio Presbyterian Synod is scheduled here June 20-23. Held at the same time will be the 28th annual meeting of the Presbyterian Women's Synodical Society and the ninth annual meeting of the youth synod.

NOTICE OF HEARING FOR PAROLE

Manfield, Ohio, June 10, 1949
No. 44892
Edward A. McMullen, A prisoner now confined in the Ohio State Reformatory, Manfield, Ohio, admitted from Fayette County, Case No. 3672 Doc. No. Convicted 12-18-46 of the crime of Hse. Brk. and serving a sentence of 1-5 yrs. is eligible for a hearing before the OHIO PARDON AND PAROLE COMMISSION on or after July 1, 1949.
A. C. FORSYTH, Parole and Record Clerk

J. E. Rhoads Heating Service

Gas - Oil - Coal
Furnaces
Stokers - Blowers
Roofing - All Types
Sheet Metal
Shop Work
Gutter and Spouting
Furnaces Cleaned
$3.50 Up
We Repair Any Make
Furnace
202 Oak St.
(Next To Wilson's Lumber Yard)
Phones
Res. 48852
Off 21901

Our Store Open For Gasoline & Oil

Also
Closing Out $3000.00 Worth Of Merchandise Consisting Of — Hardware
Ammunition
Auto Supplies
And Many Other Items
Discounts Ranging As High As 28% On Most Of It

CLEON C. COE

Bookwalter, Ohio
Open 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Rayburn nodded. "Sometimes I think he knew every move we made and followed us. He still loved Donna, I know, and he was never the kind to give up when he desired something. But Donna died in Grasshopper Gulch the first winter, and I'd have been willing to die, except that I had you girls to raise. And the irony of it was that I was rich—rich enough to have given your mother everything. My claim in the gulch had paid off as well as Alessandro's, which was one of the best."

"And you got into that card game then?" Chip asked.

"That was part of Alessandro's scheme; I can see it now," Rayburn said. "Donna was gone, but he hated me the more because his chance of taking her from me was gone too. He wanted me ruined, stripping me of everything I owned. That's what made me desperate. I had my girls to raise, and I'd let everything I possessed cross that table. So I made that one last deal—the deal whereby I staked myself against what I'd lost. And lost again on the turn of a crooked card, though I didn't know that till last night."

"And you never wished on a deal like that?" Ives marveled.

Rayburn shook his head. "I'd been a professional gambler, and that made it a matter of honor. Alessandro was likely taking that into account. But he insisted that I turn Lia over to him; she was to be his hostage, his assurance that I'd keep the bargain I'd made. He had another reason, of course. Hope was my girl, blonde and blue-eyed, but Lia was her mother all over again. The love that Seton Alessandro had lost had been transferred to the image of Donna Brenandano. And so Lia went to live with him, and Hope went to an academy in Helena, where I registered her under the Anglicized version of her mother's maiden name."

"Alessandro had come to Tumblerock by then, bringing his gold from Grasshopper Gulch. And here he found out about the outlaw sanctuary of Forlori Valley to the north, and saw the possibility of making himself richer by acting as middle man for the valley. I was installed in the valley to see that the Forlorners never resented his fat pickings too highly. And thus he had the perfect set-up. There was Jasper Fogg under his thumb to handle any shady legal dealings for him, Colorado Jack, here, equally his slave, and able to take care of his ranch, and me to handle the valley. It left Alessandro free to roam the world at will."

"But if you'd only told me the truth!" Lia cried.

(To Be Concluded)

Check Robber Sentenced

CINCINNATI, June 20—(P)—John W. Birchfield, 26, of Ironton, was sentenced to two years imprisonment here yesterday by Federal Judge John H. Druffel for stealing checks from letters. He pleaded guilty.

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT

Estate of Verta E. Combs, Deceased.
Notice is hereby given that Lorin E. Combs has been duly appointed Executor of the estate of Verta E. Combs, deceased, late of Fayette County, Ohio. Creditors are required to file their claims with said Executor within four months or forever be barred.
No. 5605
Date June 8, 1949
Attorney Charles H. Hirs

RELL G. ALLEN
Judge of the Probate Court
Fayette County, Ohio

NEWS VIEWS

By RAY BRANDENBURG

One thing June graduates are getting these days is advice. Like a wind-vane in a hurricane, it's on all sides. A lot of it is as useless as a hair net to a bald-headed man, but then some of it is useful, too. One fellow advises graduates not to worry about the first job they got. It isn't where you start... it's where you're going. If you begin at the bottom you can head only one way. You'd be surprised at how many of our top executives started pushing a broom or being somebody's office boy. If you've got the stuff, you'll make the grade. Decide what you want... and go after it. Good luck!

Well I was King for a day Sunday, and did I enjoy it. I let them wait on me hand and foot all day long. The guy who started Father's Day, must have been a fine person. I feel that one of the finest, and most appreciated honors I ever received was being chosen as a typical father on Mac "Sauer's for Breakfast" program at Leesburg last week.

Thanks a million folks for the fine letters you sent in. A Miami man claimed a drugstore mixed his prescriptions. He's been drinking hair tonic for a year and rubbing stomach medicine on his head. What's the difference, as long as he's healthy? To keep your car healthy, bring it in for regular inspection and service to R. BRANDENBURG MOTOR SALES, INC. 524 Clinton Ave. Let us give you the low-down on your car's let-down. Be satisfied with service and materials. Remember at BRANDENBURG'S we sell the best and junk the rest.

Classifieds

Phone 22121

Classified Advertising Rates
Per word for 3 insertions 3c
Per word for 4 insertions 4c
Per word for 5 insertions 5c
Per word for 6 insertions 6c
Per word for 7 insertions 7c
Per word for 8 insertions 8c
Per word for 9 insertions 9c
Per word for 10 insertions 10c
Per word for 11 insertions 11c
Per word for 12 insertions 12c
Per word for 13 insertions 13c
Per word for 14 insertions 14c
Per word for 15 insertions 15c
Per word for 16 insertions 16c
Per word for 17 insertions 17c
Per word for 18 insertions 18c
Per word for 19 insertions 19c
Per word for 20 insertions 20c
Per word for 21 insertions 21c
Per word for 22 insertions 22c
Per word for 23 insertions 23c
Per word for 24 insertions 24c
Per word for 25 insertions 25c
Per word for 26 insertions 26c
Per word for 27 insertions 27c
Per word for 28 insertions 28c
Per word for 29 insertions 29c
Per word for 30 insertions 30c
Per word for 31 insertions 31c
Per word for 32 insertions 32c
Per word for 33 insertions 33c
Per word for 34 insertions 34c
Per word for 35 insertions 35c
Per word for 36 insertions 36c
Per word for 37 insertions 37c
Per word for 38 insertions 38c
Per word for 39 insertions 39c
Per word for 40 insertions 40c
Per word for 41 insertions 41c
Per word for 42 insertions 42c
Per word for 43 insertions 43c
Per word for 44 insertions 44c
Per word for 45 insertions 45c
Per word for 46 insertions 46c
Per word for 47 insertions 47c
Per word for 48 insertions 48c
Per word for 49 insertions 49c
Per word for 50 insertions 50c
Per word for 51 insertions 51c
Per word for 52 insertions 52c
Per word for 53 insertions 53c
Per word for 54 insertions 54c
Per word for 55 insertions 55c
Per word for 56 insertions 56c
Per word for 57 insertions 57c
Per word for 58 insertions 58c
Per word for 59 insertions 59c
Per word for 60 insertions 60c
Per word for 61 insertions 61c
Per word for 62 insertions 62c
Per word for 63 insertions 63c
Per word for 64 insertions 64c
Per word for 65 insertions 65c
Per word for 66 insertions 66c
Per word for 67 insertions 67c
Per word for 68 insertions 68c
Per word for 69 insertions 69c
Per word for 70 insertions 70c
Per word for 71 insertions 71c
Per word for 72 insertions 72c
Per word for 73 insertions 73c
Per word for 74 insertions 74c
Per word for 75 insertions 75c
Per word for 76 insertions 76c
Per word for 77 insertions 77c
Per word for 78 insertions 78c
Per word for 79 insertions 79c
Per word for 80 insertions 80c
Per word for 81 insertions 81c
Per word for 82 insertions 82c
Per word for 83 insertions 83c
Per word for 84 insertions 84c
Per word for 85 insertions 85c
Per word for 86 insertions 86c
Per word for 87 insertions 87c
Per word for 88 insertions 88c
Per word for 89 insertions 89c
Per word for 90 insertions 90c
Per word for 91 insertions 91c
Per word for 92 insertions 92c
Per word for 93 insertions 93c
Per word for 94 insertions 94c
Per word for 95 insertions 95c
Per word for 96 insertions 96c
Per word for 97 insertions 97c
Per word for 98 insertions 98c
Per word for 99 insertions 99c
Per word for 100 insertions 100c

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Lost—Found—Strayed 3

LOST—Cameo pin, keepsake. Russell Schnell, Phone 29332. 116

Special Notices 5

IT'S TERRIFIC the way we're selling Fina Foam for cleaning rugs and upholstery. Craig's Second Floor. 126

FREDERICK COMMUNITY SALE—Thursday, June 23, 10 A. M. sharp at 721 Campbell St. Eckle and Mason, auctioneers. 117

Regular Meeting

Fayette Lodge

No. 107—F. & A. M.

Wednesday, June 22

7:30 P. M.

All members are requested to be present.

W. W. Humphries, W. M.

R. P. Heath, Sec'y.

Wanted To Buy 6

Wool

Highest Market Prices

Wool House, 220 S. Main St.

Opposite Penn. Frt. Station

C. A. Dunton

Wool House Phone 5481

Residence Phone 26492

Wanted To Rent 7

WANTED TO RENT—3 or 4 room unfurnished apartment or house, by man and wife with five month old child. Phone 3661. New Holland. 115

WANTED TO RENT—4 or 5 room house. Adults only. Phone 20551. 115

Wanted Miscellaneous 8

WANTED—General hauling. Phone 42018. Billy Wolfe. 119

WANTED—Carpenter work and plumbing. Phone 2791. 120

WANTED—Custom baling. New Holland baler. 126 a bale. Marion Cockerill. Phone 42515. 117

WANTED—Custom hay baling or hay baling on shares. Phone 2507. New Holland. 122

WANTED—Custom baling. Case system. Everitt Taylor, phone 4254. 124

NOTICE—Hay and straw baling with new Case wire baler, knife sliced. Phone 2791. Clyde Smith. 120

No Hunt'g, Trespass'g 9

NO HUNTING ON FARM OF

PATRICIA GING and

JOHN YAHN

Automobiles For Sale 10

FOR SALE—1936 Plymouth coupe, good condition, recently overhauled, call 4814. 117

FOR SALE—1935 V-8 Ford, 1028 John Street. 120

FOR SALE—1940 Dodge 4-door sedan, radio, heater, new tires, perfect mechanical condition. Can be seen at 609 E. Market St., after 6 P. M. 120

1942 Olds Dlx.

4 Door Sedan

Clean Throughout

$1095.00

Roads

Motor Sales

FOR SALE—1941 Chrysler sedan cheap, by owner. Excellent family car, must be driven to be appreciated. See Jack at Leah Tabernacle. 115

1948 Hudson 8 Sedan, radio, heater, overdrive, seat covers, other extras, 19,000 miles, brand new tires, a wonderful performer and very economical on the fuel bill. $2195

1946 Packard 8 Sedan, radio, heater, seat covers, super cushion white sidewall tires, a sweet automobile for only $1595

1946 Lincoln Sedan, radio, heater, overdrive, super cushion white sidewall tires, beautiful condition inside and out, truly a fine automobile and a good buy at the price $1595

1938 Buick Special 4 Door Sedan, radio, heater, motor recently overhauled and runs perfect, good tires. $475

1937 Oldsmobile 6, 2 Door Sedan, heater, good tires. $350

1937 Terraplane Sedan, radio, heater, seat covers, good tires, motor completely overhauled, a steal at $350

Meriweather

Hudson Packard

Since 1928

1120 Clinton Avenue

In 1934, average meat consumption by Americans dropped to 117 pounds, compared with 145 pounds in 1948 and 151 in 1900.

Automobiles For Sale 10

FOR SALE—1940 Dodge 4-door sedan, radio, heater, new tires, perfect mechanical condition. No sales tax. Phone 27041. 115

1941 Nash 6

One Owner

Very Clean Car

$595.00

Roads

Motor Sales

1948 DeSoto Club Coupe, radio, heater, plastic seat covers, fully equipped. Price $1995.00

J. Elmer White

And Son

1942 Chevrolet

2 Door, radio and heater

Needs some metal work

$495.00

Roads

Motor Sales

Better Used Cars

Guaranteed Priced

Right

Solid, Looks like new, good paint

1948 Chevrolet 4 Door $1595.00

1948 Buick 4 Door $1995.00

1947 Dodge 2 Door $1495.00

1947 Olds 4 Door $1545.00

1940 Buick Coupe $695.00

1940 Buick 4 Door $845.00

This is just a few of our many used cars

R. Brandenburg

Motor Sales, Inc.

524 Clinton Ave.

1937 Ford

2 Door Deluxe

Reconditioned

$395.00

Roads

Motor Sales

Reconditioned

Used Cars

1948 Hudson "6 cyl." Fordor $1695

1947 Chevrolet Fleetmaster Fordor .. 1295

1948 Ford Super Dlx. Fordor, perfect car 1595

1947 Plymouth Fordor 1195

1946 Ford Tudor, 6 cyl. 1095

1946 Ford Fordor Super Deluxe 1195

1942 Ford Super Dlx. Tudor 895

1941 Dodge Custom Fordor 845

Phone 9031 at our lot—Clinton and Leesburg Ave. Several other makes and models at these new low prices. See us today!

Carroll Halliday, Inc.

Your Friendly Ford & Mercury Dealer

1931 Chrysler Sedan

cheap transportation

$95.00

Roads

Motor Sales

There are more than 8,000 scheduled mail trains every day in the United States.

Automobile Service 11

— Sunoco —

McCoy

Service Station

Lubrication — Gas — Oils

Tires and Batteries

Car Washed, Polished and Waxed

Cars called for and delivered

Phone 24601

MAC BILL

850 Columbus Ave. 833 Market St.

Fires and Accessories 12

Ford, Chevrolet,

Plymouth, Dodge

Owners

Get real new-car performance from a guaranteed

Wards Rebuilt Motor!

You get genuine factory rebuilding, new parts, expert installation at Wards.

Your old motor is worth money!

See our motor man about a trade today!

Montgomery Ward

139 West Court Street

Washington C. H., Ohio

Tires and Accessories 12

RECAP—PASSENGER TIRES GUARANTEED

600x16 $6.60 exchange

Montgomery Ward

139 West Court Street

Business Service 14

LOANS—four percent farm loans, no commission, no appraisal fee, on good farms only. Write me, E. B. Smith, 12 North Third Street, Columbus. 117

AUCTIONEER—Kenneth Bumgarner. Phone 43753. 121

AUCTIONEER—W. O. Bumgarner. Phone 43753. 205

W. E. WEAVER, auctioneer, 207 North Main Street, Phone 364, 2561. 170

AUCTIONEER—Asa Farnum Jeffersonville, Ohio, phone 66432 or 66339. 125

AUCTIONEER—Donald E. Rolfe, Mt. Sterling, Ohio, Phone 76M. 244

AUCTIONEER—Jess Schleicher, Phone Bloomingburg 77563. 230

AUCTIONEER—Dale Thornton, Phone 43404. 172

Miscellaneous Service 16

ELECTRICAL SERVICE, Job or contract. Experienced workmen. Ernest O. Snyder, Phone 6683. 40321. 207

Gutter Cleaning

Paper hanging, Painting

Roofing of All Kinds

Also Carpenter Work.

Work Guaranteed

Phone 49192

B. F. Cash

IT'S TIME TO CHECK YOUR REFRIGERATION EQUIPMENT CALL

Wilson Refrigeration Service

Phone 29471 before 9 A. M. or After 5:30 P. M.

Paint Spraying Contractor

Farm Buildings, Industrial

Spraying, Barn Roofs

For Free Estimates

Don White

Bainbridge, Ohio

Phone 2592

Floor Sanding and Re-Finishing

Phone 41907

WARREN BRANNON

All Kinds Roofing and Siding

Free Estimates

Harold McConaughy

Phone 77393 Bloomingburg

Electric Wiring Installation and Repairs

Wayne L. Hill

Phone Jeff. 66507

Frank Dellinger

Washington C. H., 49322

Insulate Now Our Complete Service gives you —

Fuel Saving

Better Heating

Summer Comfort

Let us prove this by figuring your needs.

EAGLE HOME INSULATORS

Sabina Call phone 2421

C. R. WEBB

Miscellaneous Service 16

WANTED—Painting and paper hanging. Doc Dennis, New Holland, phone 5226. 295

MATSON

FLOOR SERVICE

New Floors Laid

Old Floors Sanded and Refinished

Free Estimates

Phone 22841

T-e-r-m-i-t-e-s

Cause damage estimated in excess of fifty million dollars annually.

These destructive pests work in secret and may be destroying your property NOW. Get a FREE inspection by an expert and be SAFE instead of SORRY. If you DON'T have them he will tell you so. If you do have he will SHOW you.

We are local representatives of a well established and highly regarded company who guarantee complete extermination and freedom from reinfestation for ten years. Only the most modern and effective equipment and skilled workmen employed.

The chemicals user are approved by the Dept. of Entomology, Ohio State University, also the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

Lowest prices comparable with RESULTS obtained.

Best of LOCAL references as to METHODS and RESULTS.

Edward Payne

Builders Supplies

Phone 34191 — 34192

Repair Service 17

Refrigeration Service

Walter Coil

Market at Fayette Street

Phone 31833 or 49354

Upholster'g, Refinish'g 19

WOOD'S UPHOLSTERY Shop, phone 66313 Jeffersonville. 411

Agents-Salesmen W't'd 20

AN INTERESTING job! Want to sell? For a national firm? Doubt your ability? Come in for a preliminary interview. For appointment, call W. H. Wuerdeman, Baltimore, Hotel, Dayton, Ohio, Adams 2161. Tuesday through Thursday, June 21 through 23 exclusive. 117

AVERAGE $45 weekly for man or woman to supply famous Watkins Products to customers in Washington C. H., Ohio. Established business, no investment. Start now. Write E. K. Shuey, Box 157, Station A, Columbus, Ohio. 115

Help Wanted 21

MAN with car wanted for route work. $15 to $20 a day. No experience or capital required. Steady. Write today. Mr. Sharp, 120 East Clark St., Freeport, Illinois. 115

WANTED—Furnace mechanic, must have car. Good pay and steady work to man who qualified. Apply Holland Furnace Co., 247 East Court St., Rear. 119

Wanted

Experienced Body and Paint Man.

Must be first class.

Apply At

Judy's Garage

1029 Dayton Ave.

Phone 8651

Situations Wanted 22

GOOD EIGHT ft. McCormick Deering wheat binder. Phone 34271. 120

WANTED—Steady farm work. Can give references, phone 2475 Sabina, Ohio. 116

WANTED—Painting by job or hour. Phone 45617. 116

EXPERT PAPER hanging. Phone 42858. Guy Patton. 123

Farm Implements 23

MCCORMICK DEERING six foot No. 41 combine with motor, J. Fred McCoy, Mt. Sterling, Phone 1715 X. 115

FOR SALE—Farmall B tractor. Also used horse drawn machinery. Phone 77512 Bloomingburg. 118

Steel Fence Posts

Prices Down

We follow the market down. Prices $8.00 per ton off. You benefit

when you buy at

Wilson's Hardware

Save $100 Now

Get a good 1-plw tractor in

Jeff Carnival Winds Up With Record Crowd

Good Weather Greeted Crowd Saturday At Jeff Lions Carnival

The three-day Jeffersonville Lions club carnival, which got off to a wet start, wound up in attendance-breaking fashion Saturday.

Capacity crowds, blessed with sunny weather jammed into the booths and swarmed aboard the two rides from 2 P. M. until the carnival closed at 11:30 P. M. Saturday.

A special rate for youngsters under 12 brought a record turnout of kids Saturday afternoon.

From 7 P. M. until closing time Lions club members reported the two rides were filled to capacity.

Clarence G. Stuckey, president of the Jeffersonville club, said net proceeds from the carnival would be available until expenses had been deducted from the gross gate.

All money raised at the carnival will go into the Jeff club's community service fund.

Lions club members at Jeffersonville are especially happy with a job which they accomplished last Monday, when a 12-year-old youth was fitted with an artificial eye which was purchased with funds raised by the club.

Special tributes to the club were flowing today from Jeffersonville folks for the way which Lions club members there worked in cleaning up the streets following the carnival.

It was reported that the club members stayed on the job until 4 A. M. Sunday morning sweeping and cleaning up the downtown streets.

Stuckey said he especially wanted to thank the wives of the Lions and the non-member women of Jeffersonville who helped throughout the three-day festival. He said their help was instrumental in making the carnival both a financial success and a success for those who attended.

Willard Evans Is Summoned by Death

Willard Evans, 73, died early Monday morning at his home in Atlanta after a serious illness of one week.

The son of Sampson and Cynthia Evans, he was born near Atlanta and lived there all of his life. A farmer, Evans was a member of the Atlanta Methodist Church. His wife, Cora, preceded him in death two years ago.

He is survived by one son, Wendell Evans of Atlanta; a grandson, Harley Evans of Atlanta and two sisters, Mrs. Alta Wark and Mrs. Mollie Stout, both of Dayton.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 2 P. M. at the home of his son in Atlanta, with Rev. S. C. Elisea officiating. Interment will be made in the New Holland Cemetery under the direction of the Kirkpatrick and Sons Funeral Home.

Friends may call at the home of Wendell Evans at any time until the hour of the funeral.

Junior Hobby Club Plans Swim Party

The Junior Hobby Club of Bloomingburg met at the home of Marilyn Heistand Saturday afternoon to discuss plans for a swimming party.

After seven members had answered the roll, Zana Cowdrey, club president, conducted the business meeting. Besides the swimming party which will be held in the near future, according to the club's plans, the girls also decided to sell soft drinks to raise funds for the club's summer activities. The club members then went outside for a recreation period and refreshments before the meeting was adjourned.

County Courts

WANTS DIVORCE
Everett Walters, in a suit for divorce from Virginia Jane Walters, to whom he was married June 1, 1933, charges gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty. The parties have lived apart since Dec. 20, 1947, the petition states. Custody of their four children is asked by Walters, who is represented by Charles S. Hire.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS
Glenn H. Woodmansee et. al., to Washington Park Association, 1.11 acres, city.
Glenn H. Woodmansee to Washington Park Association, 15.47 acres, city.
Jesse H. Lindsey to Jeanette T. Coffey, lot 79, Baker addition.

Return of Property Is Sought in Suit

Grace Peters, in an action filed in common pleas court, makes W. H. Peters and Clara Mark defendant, in seeking to regain possession of certain property which she deeded to W. M. Peters in connection with a written agreement. She charges that Peters violated terms of the agreement, and that Clara Mark claims some interest in the property.

Mrs. Peters states that on Sept. 19, 1947, she entered into a written agreement with W. H. Peters and conveyed to him part of lots 907 and 908 in the Coffman Addition.

She states in her petition that no money was paid to her, but the property was conveyed upon defendant's agreement to pay her $15 monthly the remainder of her life; keep the taxes paid, and not sell or encumber the premises, or the agreement would be broken.

Plaintiff, who is represented by Charles S. Hire, states that the defendant, Peters, on Dec. 19, 1947, executed a mortgage to Clara Mark, for $500 against the property; has failed to pay her $15 since Nov. 4, 1948, and permitted taxes to become delinquent.

She asks the court to require the defendant to convey the property to her and for other relief. She also asks that Clara Mark set up her claims.

Mrs. Ellen Traber Summoned by Death

Mrs. Ellen Traber, 87, the mother of Mrs. Guy E. Tucker of Good Hope, died Monday morning in Springfield after a serious illness of several weeks. She was not considered in critical condition until Monday when she passed away suddenly.

A former resident of Rainsboro and Dunkinsville, Mrs. Traber was preceded in death by her husband Whit Traber, who died several years ago.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Camera Society Meets on Farm

Camera Fans 'Shoot' Models on McCoy Farm

More than 25 camera fans from Washington C. H., McConnelsville and Columbus held an all day "shooting session" Sunday on the V. R. McCoy farm near this community.

Four models, Connie Pyle, Ludene Torbett, Phyllis Brush and June Denton, posed in various settings around the grounds for the members present from the Central Ohio Photographic Society.

Mike Tatem, a Columbus photographer, arranged some of the formal settings while Mrs. Delbert C. Hays was in charge of the costume set-ups.

Mr. and Mrs. David Pitts and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert C. Hays were in charge of the arrangements for the "shooting session" and the basket dinner which was held.

The camera fans expressed a vote of thanks to McCoy for allowing the photographic society the use of his grounds.

Mrs. Emma Hoppes Dies Here Monday

Mrs. Emma May Hoppes, 71, died at the Leeth Nursing Home Saturday afternoon, where she had been a patient for the past two months.

Born near Mt. Sterling, she lived there until she married Valentine Hoppes, when she moved to Bloomingburg. In 1913 they moved to Washington C. H. Her husband preceded her in death in 1944.

Besides being a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Hoppes was one of the oldest members of the Forest Chapter of the Eastern Star, a member of the Women's Relief Corp and the Pythian Sisters.

She is survived by two sons, Walter L. Hoppes of Amarillo, Texas, Henry Hoppes of Dayton, and one grand daughter, Barbara Ann Hoppes.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2:30 P. M. at the First Presbyterian Church with Rev. K. Abernethy officiating. Interment will be made in the Bloomingburg Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Hook and Son Funeral Home at any time until the hour of the funeral.

band Whit Traber, who died several years ago.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Dunkinsville Methodist Church.

The Old Home Town

By Stanley

County Students Attending Boys' and Girls' State Meets

Three students from Fayette County, all of whom will be seniors next year, are learning more about government at both boys' and girls' state meetings today.

Meeting at Delaware, the annual Buckeye Boys' State is being attended by Eugene Burris and Willard Farrell Baird, from this county. Burris will be a senior at the Washington C. H. High School next year while Baird will be a senior at Wayne.

Both boys were selected by a special committee for their outstanding achievement in scholarship, leadership and sportsmanship. They are sponsored by the Paul H. Hughes American Legion, Voiture 88 and 40 at 8.

The sessions at Delaware last 10 days with regular elections held as the boys learn how officials are chosen to head a "mock" state.

DELAWARE, June 20—(P)—Campaigning began in earnest today on behalf of 20 boys who are candidates for state "office."

Elections were to be held Monday morning. Heading the Nationalist ticket for governor is William I. Goettman of Springfield. His opponent, running on the Federalist ticket, is Jack J. Feldman of Euclid.

The voters include 868 Ohio high school boys. They are meeting at Ohio Wesleyan University for the 10-day workshop in practical government that is sponsored by the American Legion. The successful candidates will be sworn in tonight and the mock state government will start functioning tomorrow.

During the week there will be legislative sessions, committee hearings and other regular state government functions.

In the Federalist race, four candidates were deadlocked on the second ballot for governor. Two of these, Hodge and Nail, withdrew in favor of James S. Doame of Canton. Delegates upset their plans by voting for the fourth man, Jack Feldman.

Girls' State
At the same time, Robin Newhouse, of Washington C. H. is at Capital University attending Girls' State as a representative from the county sponsored by the Auxiliary of the Legion.

Girls' State lasts one week and is run in much the same manner as its brother organization. Party caucuses for the "Realists" and "Idealists," the two political parties, got under way today.

By this afternoon, the 422 high school girls registered at the Capital University gathering were expected to have their city governments functioning.

Although the girls arrived only yesterday for the week-long study of democracy in action, they lost no time in building and mending political fences; the "politic-

Moose Officers Plan To Attend Meeting

Two officials from the Washington C. H. Moose Lodge will attend a tri-district meeting in Zanesville June 24, 25 and 26.

Those representing the Moose from this city will be Hubert L. Sword, governor, and Jacob Weizer, secretary.

Other members from here who plan to attend some of the sessions are: John Lauffer, Glen W. ing" got under way in earnest. General elections were scheduled for today and all branches of the junior state government are expected to be operating by tomorrow.

Girls' State is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary of the Ohio department.

Owens, Robert Parrett and Ed Evans.

The three-day convention will feature a "Legion Frolic" and parade Sunday and meetings held in the Shrine Auditorium. The main speakers on the program will include J. Jack Stoyer, regional director of Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia and New Jersey; Carl Weiss, supreme auditor and Carl Anger, Noble North Moose.

Friday evening there will be a special initiation for both the Moose and Women of the Moose.

Several Drivers Cited by Police

Several persons were cited in police court over the week-end, including one intoxicated driver and other traffic violators.

Leo Wood posted $10 for failing to stop at a red light, and David

Naye, Cincinnati, posted $25 on a reckless operation charge and forfeited the bond. Naye was picked up by a state highway patrolman.

Jesse E. Bean, Wilmington, was listed on a disorderly charge and Carl Kenneth Trickle, Cincinnati, was cited on a reckless operation charge driving 50 miles on Columbus Avenue. He posted $35 bond.

Howard A. Jacobs, Good Hope, was cited on a charge of driving while intoxicated and posted $300 bond for his appearance Monday. Wilbur Amos Hodson, Highland, posted $25 for failing to have a drivers license.

READ THE CLASSIFIED ADS

NEW
Akron Modern Truss Back Pad—No protruding stud posts to wear the clothing—neat.
OLD
Old Style Truss Back Pads—Note the cumbersome stud posts causing discomfort.
Downtown Drug

When You Entertain Banquet Groups For Dinner Make Your Reservations Well In Advance Tables For Small Special Parties On Request

GROUP DINNERS

RESERVATIONS PHONE 2531 Hotel Washington Coffee Shop

JUMBO CALIFORNIA Cantaloupes 15¢ Ea.
45 Size

CUBAN PINEAPPLE Fancy, Sweet, 15-Size. Each 19¢
Crate of 15 2.79 6 for 1.14

FANCY WATERMELONS 24-Lb. Avg. Red Ripe Florida. Ea. 89¢

HOT-HOUSE TOMATOES Strictly U. S. No. 1 Extra Large Size Ripe, Firm TUBE 25¢

CALIF. POTATOES Strictly U. S. No. 1 Size A Long Whites. Low Price 10 Lbs. for only 59¢

TRY IT!...
you'll enjoy its richer, smoother flavor and texture.

BORDEN'S ICE CREAM
Popular Flavors Pint Pkg. 25¢
Hershey Syrup 14¢
Ass't. Cookies 23¢

ALBERLY ICED TEA
Plastic Spoon with each pkg. 3-Oz. Pkg. 47¢
CALIF. LEMONS 4 For 19¢
DOMINO SUGAR 5 Lbs. 48¢

FRESH GROUND BEEF
Made from Tender, Lean Beef. Ground Daily to Insure Freshness. A Pound Will Serve from 4 to 6 People. Save. POUND 47¢

VEAL CHOPS Tender Rib End Cuts. A Value. Pound 59¢

BREAST O'VEAL For Stewing. Pound 29¢

BREAKFAST BACON Armour Star Pound 59¢

Dexter or Gold Coin. Value. Lb. 47¢

GOD or HADDOCK FILLETS No Bone. Lb. 39¢

ROSE FISH FILLETS Pound Only 35¢

ARMOUR TAMALES
In Rich Spicy Sauce. Just Heat and Serve. 16-Oz. Can 19½¢

NIBLETS CORN
"Fresh Shucked Flavor" Bantam Sweet Whole Kernels. 12-Oz. Vac. Can 17½¢

ARMOUR DEVILED HAM
Sandwich Spread Delight. Serve Often For Summer Lunches. 3½-Oz. 17¢

ALBERLY BREAD Sliced White Enriched Pound Loaf 10¢

NUGGET CATSUP Fine Flavor. Good quality. 14-Oz. Bottle 10¢

CREAM CORN Smart Shopper. White. Budget Buy. No. 2 Can 9½¢

NECTARINE PEACHES Golden Bantam. Kruso Brand. Low Price No. 2 10¢

PORK & BEANS Red Rose Brand 3 16-Oz. Cans 25¢

SWEET MIXED PICKLES Lang's Qt. Bot. 27¢

ORANGE ADE Hi-C Brand. Refreshing on Hot Days. 46-Oz. Can 32¢

SALAD DRESSING Mary Lou Brand. Low Price. You Save. Qt. 32¢

SUNOL BLEACH Disinfects. Bleaches. Budget Buy. Quart 9½¢

GALVANIZED PAILS 10-Quart Size Sturdy. Each 35¢

Pure Frozen Orange Juice
SPERTI
Add 2 parts water to make 18 ounces of pure juice. Concentrated 5½-Oz. 17½¢

FRESHLINE
12 ounces of pure frozen juice. Rich in natural vitamins. Low price. Can 14½¢

PASCO
Just add 3 parts water to make 24 ounces of pure orange juice. 6-Oz. Can 19¢

Albers SUPER MARKETS

VACATIONING?

ARRANGED TO LEAVE KIDS AT GRANDMA'S FARM

PLANNED 2-DAY STAY WITH COUSIN IN NEW YORK

RESERVED SAME SUITE AT THEIR HONEYMOON HOTEL

LONG DISTANCE SMOOTHS THE WAY

Business-bound or pleasure-bent, smart travelers insure smooth trips with a few well-placed long distance calls.

Room reservations, business appointments or friendly visits along the way, all can be arranged quickly and surely by long distance. And it costs so little.

Calls go through faster when you give the operator the telephone number of the out-of-town party

THE OHIO BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY